The tickets are on the street for the Military Ball at the Farmington High School Auditorium on George Washington's birthday. Understand a well known band from Redford will play and a good time will be in store for all ages.

Have you your tickets? James E. Tolman at 6587-J1, will oblige you if you will call him. He is the very able chairman of the dance committee and has six others to help him. It should be a "gala" affair and promises to be bigger and better than even the last dance sponsored by the Post.

Everyone come out and meet the men and boys that did your actual fighting for you.

Fred Menke Sr. and Fred Menke Jr. journeyed over to Holly to help install a new Veterans of Foreign Wars Post. They took our colors along and I understand they had a good time.

The Early Way Method Penmanship
... has successfully taught many people in other communities to write a beautiful free-flowing hand, who were convinced they could not learn to write. Many such people were between 10 and 60 years of age.

The EARLY-WAY School seeks to prove to this community also, that the success of its system is not limited to the young folks. Contrary to the belief of many the age of students has little to do with their successfully learning to write. Let's help our minds speak more clearly by learning to write the EARLY-WAY.
