superintendent of your schools is the education expert in your community." He also read the motion picture to the people to levy a mill tax for 5 years earmarked for a new high school building. This question and a second question involving the exceeding of the 15 mill limitation will be put before the voters in the General School election to be held in July. He said that the Board has directed Supt. Ayres to look for outside building space to alleviate the crowded conditions.

Superintendent E. V. Ayres pointed out the need of a good life adult organization to aid in the building of a sound school system. He pointed out the critical school housing shortage we now face in Farmington, and asked for clear, constructive thinking in working out the problem.

Mrs. Warren Joy, president of the Farmington Parent Teachers Association, acknowledged all those who aided in making the Founders Day Banquet a success. Austin Grant, Detroit News Commentator, acted as toastmaster for the program.

The Viking Quartet entertained with seven songs.
