W.C.T.U. GROUP PURCHASES CHAIR FOR HOSPITAL

The Farmington W.C.T.U. has raised a fund of $40.00 to purchase a wheel chair to be sent to Percy Jones Hospital. The chair will have a name plate with Farmington W.C.T.U. engraved on it. It will be presented to some individual patient at the hospital and is to be used by him during his time at the hospital and he may take it with him when he leaves.

There were 20 members present at the last meeting and three guests. They voted to continue to raise money to purchase one or two more chairs. Mrs. William Lancaster is the chairman. Mrs. Belle Williams of Plymouth and Mrs. E. M. Warner are also on the committee. Anyone wishing to contribute to the funds may send money to one of these three. They also voted to place jars for contribution in stores and different public places, so the people in and around Farmington could contribute.

The scene-felt reading given by Mrs. White of Ferndale was very much appreciated as also the two talks by Rev. A. Stanley Stone.

Mrs. Warner served very lovely refreshments.

HAZEL M. WILCOX IS BRIDE OF ROSE CITY MAN

A lovely informal wedding took place at the Methodist Church on Friday afternoon, March 27, when Hazel May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice L. Wilcox, of Angling Road and J. R. Teeple, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Teeple, of Rose City, Michigan, were united in marriage. Mrs. Murel Burdick played the wedding march. Rev. A. Stanley Stone performed the ceremony and the bride was given away in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a gown of white jersey and lace, with a finger tip veil and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Brother Teeple, the groom's sister, was matron of honor and wore a blue satin gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses. June Meyers of Farmington was the bridesmaid and she wore a pink taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Robert Wilkerson of Detroit, the bride's uncle, and Kenneth Abbott of Rose City, were the best men. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wilcox wore a rose street length dress, and a corsage of white camellias. Mrs. Teeple of Rose City, the groom's mother, wore a blue dress and a corsage of white camellias.

At 8:00 o'clock in the evening 250 guests gathered at the God-fellowship Hall on Inkster Road for the reception. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Teeple left on a short honeymoon. The bride and groom will make their home on a farm at Rose City after April 1.

CUB SCOUTS CONTROL FIRE AT WEAVER HOME

Mrs. Edson J. Weaver of 30723 Grand River Avenue is acclimating two Cub Scouts with the fact that she still has a home.

Wednesday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock sparks from a grass fire blew onto the roof of the Weaver home setting it afire. No one knows how the grass fire was started.

The two Cubs, David Harris of 31095 Grand River Cut-Off and Elmer Sandnes of 30743 Grand River saw the flames on the roof of the Weaver home, and both boys went onto the roof. David fell off once, but they kept doggedly at their job, pouring buckets of water on the fire and managed to keep it under control until the Farmington Fire Department arrived.

The department responded to a call from a neighbor, and put the fire out before any great amount of property damage had been done.

AMVETS POST ELECTS TRICKEY AS COMMANDER

The first meeting of the Perry Kenner Amvets Post was held on Tuesday, March 26, in the Oddfellows Hall, Novi. The post was honored with the presence of Richard Moore, Commander of the Amvets of Michigan, and Dr. Marvin Blaess, vice commander of Post 11 in Detroit.

Approximately fifty veterans attended and are now charter members. Officers were elected, and after the business session adjourned, coffee and doughnuts were served. Membership is open to all veterans of World War II.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, April 2, in Oddfellows Hall.

The new officers are Charles Trickey, Jr., commander; Gerald Trotter, first vice commander; William MacDermid, second vice; Don Archibald, judge advocate; Fred Solomon, finance officer and Paul Cummings, Bill Hanson and Walt Goodrich, trustees.

Women's Club Will Meet At Stone Home

The Farmington Woman's Club will meet on Wednesday afternoon, April 3, at the home of Mrs. A. Stanley Stone. The program is in charge of Mrs. Jessie Perita. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Auten. Mrs. Ritter was in charge of the program and introduced Mrs. Do-hany who showed some beautiful slides of colored pictures which she took while on a trip with her daughter through the west. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Auten.

James Hohn Injured In Fall

James Hohn, the barber formerly employed at Plumton's barber shop and more recently in the shop of A. J. Chastock, had the misfortune to fall down the stairs in the Farmington Improvement Company building, at the rear of Plumton's Barber Shop Monday evening.

Fred Leuz, caretaker of the building, found Hohn when he reported to check the boiler. Hohn was taken to Reinford Receiving Hospital where it was found he has a fractured skull. He is in very serious condition and not expected to live.

GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL MEMBERS TO HAVE DINNER

A monthly meeting of the Farmington Girl Scout board was held Tuesday, March 26. Plans were discussed for a social get together for all adult members of the council.

The dinner will be served at the Evangelical Church, April 23, at 7:00 p.m. and will consist of a full course dinner for only $1.25. They are anticipating a large turn out from members of the council and request that reservations be made no later than April 13.

For reservations call Mrs. V. M. Zolikosky, Farmington 1066-J.

Howard Buschings To Be In California

Word has been received here that Rev. Howard Buschings, former pastor of The First Methodist Church of Farmington, has taken a new position as Executive Secretary of the Oakland Council of Churches, Oakland, California. It will be part of his work to be a visiting minister in each of the 12 churches of the Council.

The Buschings family will move April 15 to their new home, 578 62nd Street, Oakland, California.
