TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO (May 13, 1921)

A company known as the Lake Way Association was formed Monday evening at the home of F. A. Gilden on Lake Way Avenue. Several of the owners went before the council and secured permission to care for a plot of ground each side of Lake Way and Grand River Avenue.

With the coming of spring subdivision property out Farmington way is moving faster than the most optimistic had predicted. After year or more of stagnation the residence property in this section has at last come into her own.

With a statement showing multiplication by more than ten times the assets of the opening day two years ago, the Farmington State Bank will celebrate its second birthday next week. Officials of the bank are extending their thanks to the depositors and stockholders who have shown their faith in the future of the institution.
