TO UNRRA EMERGENCY

Answering the plea ("Will you give that they may live," the students and 'teachers of Parmington High School again opened their hearts and purse strings by responding with generous contributions. During the Emergency Fool Collection held May 23 to May 31, approximately 300 cans of tood were gathered froir the high school announced Mr. Byron Oil-ter, district chaltman, fand Velma Goers, student chaltman, Most requested foods.

ver, district chairman, and Velma Goers student chairman. Most requested foods were: milk (condensed, evaporated, or dried), meat, fish, peakut butter, baby foods, baked beaus, stews, soups, honey, fruits, Julices and vegetables. To urge action, posters illus-trating famine-stricken Europe and

To orge action, posters intrating fainise-tricken Europe and Asia were drawn and put in class-rooms by Hulas Hately, Rulh Mc. Curdy, Dick Martindale, and Veina Goers.

When collections from the entire township schools were made, they tabulated about 500 pounds. Twenty additional cans were purchased with profits from the safe of lead penalty. From Farmington the cannot goods will be sent to Mr. Henry A. Wallace in New York and will be promptly shipped querseas.

Although a scarcity of food in prevaient, Mr. Oliver believes that our drive; along with those churches and other organizations, has been a definite success, M.W.
