DONNA SHIRTLIFF MARRIED AT HOME CEREMONY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, June 1, when Miss Donna Shirriff, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shirriff of Twelve Mile Road, and William St. Clair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Redman of Midland, were united in marriage by Rev. MacRae of Walled Lake.

At two o'clock the bride party started for the East lawn of the home of the Shirriffs, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Eva Leavenworth at the piano. Mrs. Rebecca Mar sang "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning."

The bride, gowned in white tulle with net overskirt, wore a flowered finger veil held in place with a tulle of orange blue. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias, carnations and snapdragons. She was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's sister, Madeline, was maid of honor. She was gowned in yellow net, over silk, with a shouger length veil held in place by a crown of seed pearls. Her flowers were yellow snapdragons and carnations.

Don St. Clair of Detroit was his brother's best man, and the ushers were Gene Symons and Perry Cooper.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Shirriff wore a two-piece street length dress of navy, trimmed in white, and white accessories. Mrs. Redman, the groom's mother, wore a lavender print dress. Their centers were pink and white carnations.

A reception for about a hundred guests was held at four o'clock. Refreshments were served from a three-piece table, centered with a silvered wedding cake. Mrs. Eva Leavenworth and Mrs. Belle Moorey presided, and Mrs. George Waite, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. William Hanson.

The bride and groom left immediately for a motor trip in the northern part of the state. They expect to be gone a week. For going away Mrs. St. Clair wore a two-piece, luggage tan suit, with white hat, gloves and purse, and a corsage of gardenias.

The bride graduated from the Walled Lake High School in the Class of 1945, and has been employed as a clerk at Northville. The groom has just received his discharge after serving in the European Theatre of War. He received his schooling at Pontiac, and is employed by General Motors, Pontiac.

They will make their home in Highland for the present.

Obituaries

Sherry Burns
Sherry Burns died Tuesday, June 4, at his residence, 21105 Inkster Road.

Mr. Burns leaves his wife, Ruth, and four children, Mildred LaForge, Beulah Monette, Ruth Krogerman and Grant Burns. He was born February 25, 1884, at Cheboygan, Michigan.

Funeral services will be held at two o'clock Friday afternoon from the Spencer J. Heaney Funeral home with burial at Grand Lawn Cemetery.

William Brassow
Funeral services for William Brassow, 75, will be held Thursday afternoon from the residence at 1:30 p.m. and at 2:00 p.m. from St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Burial will be at Glen Eden Memorial Park. Arrangements are in charge of the Heaney Funeral Home.

Mr. Brassow died June 3 at his home, 19019 Flamingo, Farmington, after a long illness. He was born January 8, 1855 in Germany, coming to this country at the age of six, and settling in Livonia Township.

Surviving are his wife, Minnie, nee Livranze, two sons, Edward at Detroit and Norman of Farmington, and three daughters, Mrs. Albert Muehler of Plymouth, Mrs. Earl Brassow of Saline and Edward Hartwig of Detroit.

Also surviving are 17 grandchildren, two great grandchildren and two nieces. Four children preceded him in death, Mrs. Carl Schwartz of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Herman Kreger of Northville, and two children who died in infancy.

BAPTIST CHURCH ANNOUNCES BIBLE SCHOOL

A Summer Vacation Bible School for all children from four to 14 years of age will be conducted at the First Baptist Church, Farmington, from June 10 through June 21. Sessions will be held daily from 9 a.m. until 12:00 noon, except Saturday and Sunday. The program will conclude with a public program and demonstration on Friday evening, June 21.

The theme for the beginners' department will be "The World That God Made." The primaries will pursue a missionary theme, "Taking Jesus to South America." The Junior and early intermediates will study together "Customs and Manners of Palestine." Each department will be staffed by capable leaders and workers. The daily program will consist of singing, games, handicraft, treats, and study book projects.

The children of Farmington are cordially invited to enroll. Pre-registrations before June 10 would be appreciated. Call your information to Farmington 1277. There will be no charge for the school, but a daily offering will be received from the children which will go in its entirety to a missionary cause.

Shepherds Tell Of Daughter's Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. William Shepherd of 15810 Middlebelt Road, announced the marriage of their daughter, Irene, to Mr. William Depa of Detroit. The wedding was an event of Saturday, May 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Depa will make their home at 29715 Broadmore in Livonia Township.

Hybrid Vegetables
An increased development of hybrid vegetables, with advantages for the grower similar to those of hybrid corn, is expected. Hybrid tomatoes and cucumbers already have been announced.

At their meeting last week Exchange listened to an interesting talk on the community center at Waterford, delivered by one of the men who was instrumental in securing the center, and who was brought to the club as the guest of Max Hulet. Exchanges were particularly interested in the talk since many Farmington people are in favor of such a community center here.

The meeting on Wednesday of this week was "Movie Day" and amateur movies taken by members of the Club were shown. Movies taken by George Dewey and Maynard Whitehead were shown, many of them being aerial shots of Farmington and Oakland County, and also shown were movies Roy Miller had taken of Memorial Day and Labor Day parades in Farmington.

MRS. GILDEMEISTER RETIRES AS CLUB PRESIDENT

The Farmington Woman's Club held its annual Presidents' Luncheon at Botsford Tavern on Wednesday, June 5. The committee in charge, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Pifford and Mrs. Auten, had very beautiful floral arrangements on each table, and a lovely luncheon was served.

Mrs. McCullough returned thanks and Mrs. Cook, in her charming manner, spoke about the presidents of the club, referring to them as one large bouquet of flowers, saying that today another flower, Mrs. Gildemister, the retiring president, was added to the bouquet.

After the luncheon the women adjourned to the living room where Mrs. Gildemister, in a few well chosen words, presented the gavel to the new president, Miss Oldenburg, who very graciously accepted.

As the program for the day Mrs. Mary West Jorgensen from the Detroit Community Center, gave a most interesting book review on "The Life Line" by Phyllis Bottome.

CLARENCEVILLE CHURCH PLANS CHILDREN'S DAY

Children's Day will be observed at The Clarenceville Methodist Church at both services next Sunday, June 9. The morning service will be a combined morning Worship Hour and Sunday School program at 10:30 a.m. The very fine children's program that has been arranged will be under the direction of Miss Wilma Hood. The pastor, Rev. Elsie A. Johns, will bring a brief message, and the senior choir will sing.

At the 7:30 p.m. service, the Junior boys and girls of the Sunday School will have complete charge of the service. The Junior Boys and Girls Choir of sixty voices will be singing.

Sunday evening, June 16, will be Annual Rose Day Service. For the 7:30 p.m. service the church will be decorated with roses. It is planned by the committee in charge to use 1000 roses, and every person attending the service will receive a rose. The music and message of the evening will be centered around the theme of roses.

Daily Vacation Bible School will be held from June 17 through June 28, with daily sessions from 9:00 until 1:30 each morning. A fine staff of teachers has been secured and Miss Wilma Hood will be in charge of the school. All boys and girls are invited. There will be music, fun, recreation, singing, prizes, souvenirs and instruction. The goal this year is an average attendance of 150 students.
