Worth Repeating

is a recent statement made by Michigan's Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, in a radio address following his return from the Paris, United Nations Conference:

"You can't compromise a principle."

It is worth repeating because in these five words is the secret to most of our problems today. As a people — as a nation — we debunk principle as "old fashioned." We pay about as much attention to it as we do to a shaving mug.

Principle, ideals, policies and facts are twisted like wire into any shape that will prove beneficial to the individual or individuals in the power seat. What is right isn't figured that way. Might doesn't always make right. Facts, ideals and honesty of conviction never lessen no matter how much camouflage is thrown around.

We don't have to go back to find principle — it's here. We must, however, make it count if it is to take its proper place in our society. Principles are easy to identify because they are fixed, they are real — laws that an individual believes in and lives by. Principles are not just ramblings of a politician or inconsistent actions of a governing body. They are basic policies of right within a man that governs his actions.

Every individual who knows right from wrong knows principle. It must be made popular if we are to progress, if we are to find a basis for a sound, honest society.

Has The Selection

of public officials become so routine that we don't care? If so, Democracy has lost its meaning. This seems to be a feeling borne by a lot of people.

June 18 will tell the story, because on this day citizens will have the opportunity to vote in the General Primary Election. It is an opportunity. If you have any doubt — think it over.

How many countries give their citizens the right to express themselves? How many allow individuals to select their governmental officers? How many make it so easy to vote? It is up to you. Nobody says you have to go to the polls on the 18th. You should want to.

Here is your opportunity to act when it counts. If you think your individual vote doesn't mean anything — what would happen if everyone thought that way?

The following officials will be nominated on June 18:

- NATIONAL:
United States Senator.
United States Representative (17th Congressional District).
- STATE:
Governor.
Lieutenant Governor.
State Senator (12th District).
State Representative (3rd District).
- COUNTY:
Prosecuting Attorney.
Sheriff.
County Clerk.
County Treasurer.
Register of Deeds.
Drain Commissioner.
Coroners.
Surveyor.
Circuit Court Commissioners (Non-Partisan).
- Remember — Vote, Tuesday, June 18.

Michigan colleges are in the jam. Enrollment at the University of Michigan is now 14,400 and is due to climb to 18,000 by September. Michigan State college now has 8,200 students and is expecting 9,000 more by fall. Michigan College of Mining and Technology (Houghton) is opening a branch at Fort Brady, Sault Ste. Marie. Other institutions — Wayne, U. of Detroit, Adrian, Holland, Hillsdale and Alma — can accommodate only a limited increase because of lack of classrooms and housing facilities.

Nationally, it is forecast that 500,000 veterans will be denied a college education this fall.

Nearly 30,000 war veterans in Michigan are receiving an education with federal assistance from Uncle Sam. About one-half are students at universities and colleges; 7,200 at business schools; 530 at teacher colleges. The remainder are enrolled in "on-the-job" training programs and are getting related instruction through locally organized Veterans Institutes and USA public schools.

Some estate dealers are misrepresenting homes to war veterans according to Howard M. Warner, state corporation and securities collector. Andrew Winiowski, county chairman, journeyed to Washington and conferred with Robert Hannigan, national democratic chairman.

Net profits of 222 licensed small loan companies in Michigan averaged 7.14 per cent in 1945. E. William Nelson, state banking commissioner, reports that the small loans ($500 or less) totaled nearly 29 million dollars and averaged $176.27 each.

Proposed governmental reform: That the senate finance committee and the house ways and means committee should hold joint sessions at Lansing and should reduce their membership from eight to six respectively. The recommendation comes from the Detroit bureau of governmental research.

Michigan's mechanical "know-how" Uncle Sam's ace up his sleeve during World War II, he is being currently bilk-bayed by Governor Kelly, the state department of agriculture and the planning commission. If the promotion is successful, Michigan will be chosen as the site for the $300,000 air engineering research center of the U.S. army air corps.

New Political Groups Seek To Shape Parties' Policies

By BAUKHAUGE
News Analyst and Commentator

The donkey and the elephant are getting jealous, and the Washington Chapter of the SPPCA (Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Political Animals) is getting a little worried, lest some other new and strange fauna are going to sneak under the tent to steal the old regulars' fodder — and it ain't hay.

Three very active creatures are being heard from in tones so stentorian that the gray and the tramp, familiar sounds in campaign years, are almost drowned out.

The latest performer in the ring is the ROP (Republican Open Forum). Officially the new movement belongs to the Republican stable as its name implies, but some of the old timers are afraid the colt is getting ready to kick over the party tables.

Although the other two familiar creatures, the CIO-PAC and the NC (National Citizens'-PAC), are more at home in the Democratic pasture, they frequently get their heads through the rails to browse on the Republican side.

All three are full of ginger, and not too bedevil-wise.

STASSEN HEADS OPEN FORUM

Chairman of the Republican Open forums advisory committee is Harold Stassen, and ROP is considered pretty much his baby. Wayne Morse, Walter Judd, Gov. Raymond Baldwin of Connecticut, and other Republicans who are not unfriendly to liberal domestic and expansive international views of Stassen make up the committee.

At ROP headquarters, you are told it is strictly anti-Republican, not a one dark-horse team. However, a broad-minded tolerance to take part in forums, if they want to.

The forums are compared to town meetings, and are supposed to prevail with the opportunity of party policy. At that point comes the rub. Old Timers don't want Mr. Stassen's outfit (which its directors insist it isn't) making policy. They feel they have had enough experience in such matters themselves.

Anyhow, ROP is a going concern. As of mid-May, there were already 474 forums in operation in 41 states.

CIO WORKS TO GET OUT FAVORABLE VOTE

The CIO-PAC, we know of old. That outfit is run by Sidney Hillman, and because the CIO fathered it, Mark Sullivan says that the CIO is no longer merely a labor organization, but has acquired the status of a political party.

Its ostensible object is to get out the vote; the real object is to get out the vote they want. A definite platform for both domestic and foreign policy is stated in detail.

The six points of foreign policy include such controversial subjects as the quarantine of Spain and Argentina, and self-government for colonial nations.

There are 13 points in CIO-PAC's domestic policy, ranging from a minimum wage to OPA, and including a price guarantee to farmers, progressive taxation for large incomes, reduction on small incomes. Specific bills are singled out for support or opposition.

CIO-PAC's brother, NC-PAC, is what might be described simply as almost-pure New Deal. Chairman of the policy committee is Dr. Frank King, and with members including Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Henry Morgenthau Jr., Henry Wallace, Hugo Black and so on.

Their latest article in their organ, "The National Citizen," whose memorial edition made no single mention of the name, Truman, contained this paragraph:

"Stirred by the rising tide of reaction, and the steady drift away from the policies of Franklin D.

"God The Preserver of Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, June 16.

The Golden Text (Psalm 40:11) is: "Withhold not thou that tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy loving kindness and thy truth continually preserve me."

Among the Bible citations in this passage (Psalm 121:8): "The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 470): "God is the creator of man, and the divine Principle of man remaining perfect, the divine idea or reflection, man, remains perfect."

Looking Back Through The Enterprise Files

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO (June 24, 1921)

Closing Factories Force Men To Seek Work On Farms
Curtailed of factory operations in Detroit has thrown many men out of work. Many of these who had farming experience have come to the Agricultural division of the Board of Commerce asking help in finding places on farms.

Robbers Caught At Junction
Four men broke into Milton W. Wilkins' home on the 10th of June and secured a quantity of rings and other articles of jewelry, the total value being about $400. The Wilkins were away at the time of the robbery and when they returned and had discovered the loss, they immediately notified Norman Lee, the Deputy Sheriff, who made the investigation. Norman Lee and Ben Meyers studied the situation and discovered tracks leading from the house to the path in the woods. Here they lost the trail. But later caught the men and took them to jail.

CARAWAY SEEDS

Now caraway seeds in cookies
Are certainly "tops" to me;
In very few shops to-day, I'm sure
Such cookies you will see.

Why do these seeds to cookies add
Such wonderful taste and zest—
Why of all cookies that I eat
Are caraway cookies best?

When I was a boy, a little boy,
In a far off distant day
The cookies that my Grandma made
Were always made that way.

And I wonder if many things I like,—
And much I dislike too,—
I so regard because they're tied
To folks and things I knew.
