At one time, camels were used in a novel smuggling scheme. Their owners forced them to swallow opium in tin boxes which would lodge in the first compartment of their complicated stomachs. Later, the camels were killed and the boxes recovered. Now in suspicious cases camels are inspected by X-ray in some Arabian markets.

KUHN NOW WALKS ALONE

MUNICH, GERMANY - Soundphoto - Amidst the rubble of a shattered dream of world mastery, Fritz Kuhn walks alone. At the time he reigned as head of the German-American Bund he was con- sidered the top Nazi in the United States. When he was unable to account for Bund funds he was convicted and jailed. When the war was over Kuhn was deported to Germany. He has now settled with his family in Munich, birthplace of Nazism, where he is looking for a job.

FROM THE FARM-BELT CIVIC ASSOCIATION

At the regular Board of Direc- tors' meeting it was decided that our picnic for the members and friends of the Farm-Belt Civic As- sociation will be held at Lolo Val- ley Park on July 28th. Directions for reaching the location in the park will be given to you in the members' official notification by mail in plenty of time.

Our next quarterly meeting will be held at the Clarenceville High School on August 9th at which time we expect to clarify a number of questions that have arisen in the membership.

The Mother's Club of the Clarenceville School District held a Paper Party at the home of Mrs. Lyle McGlocklin of Parker Ave., one of the members, on Thursday afternoon, June 29. It was a demonstration of various paper products for use in the home. Those attending were the chair- man of the project, Mrs. C. Did- dange, Mrs. Clifford, Mrs. Adol- phus Perkins, Mrs. Yeoman, Mrs. C. Brown, Mrs. Kline, Mrs. Jor- genhon, Mrs. Laderoot, Mrs. Well- man, Mrs. DelMontier, Mrs. Mc- Glocklin, the hostess. Iced tea and cookies were served after the demonstration. Door prize was won by Mrs. Laderoot. All pro- ceeds are to go into a fund for a Dental Clinic to be started this coming school term. Any lady de- siring to have one of these parties for her friends, please get in touch with one of the members.

The Cub Scouts of this vicinity held their regular monthly meet- ing at Cass Benton Park. All the families brought a picnic supper. Two boys received their Wolf Badge, William Wild and his cou- sin, Willard Wild. Many of the members of the organization had made gifts for Father's Day. They were presented to their dad's a week late, but were very much appreciated. The youngsters of 9 to 11 show wonderful talent for handicraft and their leaders are to be highly commended for so unselfishly giving such a great amount of their time to the devel- opment of these young boys. Mr. Willard Wild is chairman of the committee. P.O. Box 274 or phone 1421.
