WASHINGTON DIGEST

More Business Weeks, and "Program Information" from my own American Broadcasting Company. A printed letter from the Payroll Guarantee association with an enclosure on "civilized cats, and mice and cheese." The American Feed Manufacturers' Association handout saying the feed shortage is over. General Motors sends me the ninth in a series of production reports. (What could have happened to the other eight?)

The release from the National Planning association announces that Leon Henderson and the official of a big corporation have been added to their board of trustees—and if you want to know about the distribution of fats and oils by the department of agriculture, you can have my copy of the second interim report from the Committee on Small Business pursuant to H. Res. 61.

OR MAYBE YOU'D PREFER RAIL LOADINGS
Maybe you'd rather have freight loadings of the week from the Association of American Railways, or perhaps you want to bid on the purchase of 15 or fewer Landing Ship Tanks (LST) type vessels? Or perhaps you'd prefer some all-wool American flags, or a BK steel bar for liquid or gas? Not! Well, no harm in making the offer.

Next exhibit is "News From France" from the French Information service. I'll admit I asked for that, along with the attractive magazine, "La République Française."

Here's the state department's weekly bulletin, which is Part Three of that interesting series on the present status of German youth. I was planning to write an article on the subject myself, but they tell me the magazines are over-embossed on Germany. Won't buy another thing.

Just two pages of mimeographed material from "Friends of Finland Democracy." Cruel irony here. Remember when it was "brave little Finland?" Remember when Finnish Minister Procopé couldn't go anywhere without being applauded? Finland paid her war debts! She even managed not to duck after the war! Well, Finland's friends are protesting now over the reparations demanded by Russia—heavy, or in proportion to population, they say, than are any other nations.

To pay the reparations bill, the statement claims, every man in
