HORSE SHOW THIS WEEK SUNDAY

The State Veterans of Foreign Wars encampment will be held at the Hotel Olds, Lansing, on Saturday and Sunday, October 26 and 27. Members of the local post who have sons attending Michigan State College, and there are several of them, will welcome this opportunity for a sort of family get-together, too.

The membership cards for 1947 are now available. The State Department Quartermaster, Arthur W. Thomas, is making an earnest plea that all posts in Michigan be 100 per cent paid up by Armistice Day, if possible. Several worthwhile prizes are being offered to the posts who gain this objective.

Farm Editor Penetrates SOVIET IRON CURTAIN

A Series by JOHN STROHM Formerly of Prairie Farmer

To refute charges frequently made that American correspondents are not permitted to travel freely in Soviet Russia, John Strohm, now president of the American Agricultural Editors' Association, was given every opportunity to report on conditions in cities, villages and farms. He came back with a series of illustrated articles that are almost unique in Russia-American press experience because he went where he wished and wrote what he saw without being officially guided.

Not only that but he took four cameras along. Other radio and news correspondents were amazed and envious. Now The News brings you views and news of what lies behind the Soviet Iron Curtain!
