By
MISS L. A. AULT

A very happy dinner party is reported held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Welch on Mayfield Ave. Sunday, September 23. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Cheballe, from Detroit; Mrs. Belle D. Roshia, Mrs. Welch's daughter-in-law, from Spokane, Washington, and Mrs. George Robertson of Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Baldwin and daughter, Patsy, of Farmington Road, have returned from a ten day vacation visit to Norfolk, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Berger of Mayfield Ave., have been spending the last few weeks in Detroit where Mrs. Berger is caring for her mother, who is seriously ill.

Leonard Broquet, from near Northville, was a caller at the home of his father, F. Broquet, on Norfolk, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Imonen and their two small sons, from the Upper Peninsula, are moving this week into the Hubbard Avenue property lately occupied and sold by the Wilbur Nelsons, who have now taken up their residence in Grand Rapids.

Emma Kayhko, mother of Mrs. Leslie Grundy, of Hubbard Ave., died at the home of another daughter on Ten Mile Road early Tuesday morning of last week. Mrs. Kayhko had been an invalid since suffering a paralytic stroke a few years ago and had spent much of her time at the Grungly residence in West Point Park. The body was removed to Palmsville, in northern Michigan, and funeral services were held Friday at the Lutheran Church where held Friday. The Grundys and other relatives from this vicinity went north to attend the last rites and returned home during the week-end.

Mrs. Alice Sherman of Farmington Road is spending a few weeks visiting with her sister in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Oman from Toledo, were visiting West Point Park relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault called on Mrs. Robert Borland in Redford Sunday evening. Mrs. Borland, who recently underwent a critical operation at Detroit Osteopathic Hospital, has returned home and is now able to get about a little.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stange visited Mrs. Stange's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith, near Royal Oak, Sunday.

Lewis Sideliner, from northern Michigan, is the house guest of his brother, Joseph Sideliner, on Norfolk Avenue.

Mrs. Edward Stromowski of Wayne, formerly of West Point Park, where a number of her relatives reside, called in the first of the week to say she was on her way to Chicago for a vacation visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Eggsburger, formerly of West Point Park, but now living several miles north of this community, was visiting with neighbors Saturday evening.

At an informal little get-together Mrs. Clinton Ault entertained several of her women friends at her home Friday evening. It proved a pleasant occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Owen and children, have sold their property on the Five Mile Road and taken up residence with Mrs. Owen's mother, Mrs. Alice Sherman.

RED CROSS NOTES

Mrs. L. L. Northrup, Birmingham, nutrition chairman of the Oakland County Chapter, American Red Cross, announced that Miss Jeanette Goldthorpe, nutrition field representative from the Midwestern Area office at St. Louis will spend three days next week conferring with chapter and public health officials regarding nutrition needs in Oakland County.

American Red Cross, through its local chapters extends nutrition service to local communities. Because of the importance of diet to health and well being, the American Red Cross has developed a program in nutrition education to present some of the life health survey of diets in the past (a years has shown that the diets of individuals in the United States do not contain enough of the essential elements. Many diets are inadequate in amounts, but many more are inadequate in specific food nutrients essential to good health. During Miss Goldthorpe's visit a special meeting will be held with Dr. R. G. Tuck, director of Royal Oak district, Oakland County Health Department, and representatives of the Visiting Nurse Association, to discuss special nutrition needs in Southern Oakland County.
