Christian Science

Lecture Text Is Given

A lecture on Christian Science entitled "Christian Science Reveals the Ideal Man" by Evelyn F. C. G. S. B. of London, England, member of the Board of Lecturers of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts was given Saturday afternoon at the Uxbridge School Auditorium, under the sponsorship of Christian Science Society, Farmington.

The lecturer spoke substantially as follows:

"Do we desire spiritual perfection? If so, then maintaining the ideal of perfect God and perfect man, made in His likeness, ever before us, we shall seek to model ourselves upon His perfection. Science teaches that because God, the Mind of man, the only cause and creator, is perfect, everything that He has made everything that actually exists, is perfect also."

Christ Jesus called upon his followers to express, that is, to make manifest in human lives, the ideal which he lifted up for them. "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect," he said (Matt. 5:48). In the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, we read, (p.290), "Perfection is gained only by perfection."

How contrary is this to the accepted theory of mortals, who believe that through imperfection, through trial, suffering, indeed through death itself, perfection can alone be attained.

What mighty credentials were those of Christ Jesus, when he stood up for the first time in the synagogue at Nazareth to read from the Scriptures. He was known to his fellow countrymen as the son of Joseph and of Mary, but he knew his spiritual selfhood to be the Son of God, and he came to bring the assurance of present healing and redemption to humanity; he came telling that the kingdom of God is not afar off; it is here.

In "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" (p.272) Mary Baker Eddy writes: "The real man was, is, and ever shall be the divine ideal, that is, God's image and likeness; an Christian Science reveals the divine Principle, for example, the rule, and the demonstration of this idealism."

Christ Jesus, because he was the Son of God, showed forth truth, truth, power, the indelible ability of Spirit. That which he presented, the Word made flesh, while it appeared as mortal to those who did not perceive its true meaning, was actually truth, truth, power, the indelible ability of Spirit.

Here in his unfolding sense of the Christ-ideal, he learned of the Eternal, practical availability of the words, the works, the manifestations of Spirit, the dominion of the heritage of spiritual dominion, of the power to be wielded by all who understand and obey the Christ-teaching, there was revealed to Mrs. Eddy, in this age, the Science of Christianity.

In Christian Science we learn to know God as Mind, Spirit, Soul, Principle, Life, Truth, Love; his likeness, the ideal man, has been revealed, and Mrs. Eddy's words, already quoted, "the example, the rule, and the demonstration of this idealism."

the A. C. Taggs, Joe Himmelsbach, Harley Walters, Ray Elch, Mrs. Kenn Loomis, Lloyd Smith, Trace Conroy and Jim Warner.

Lloyd Smith received much deserved praise for his piano accompaniments during the programs.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard King of Farmington and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert King of Plymouth are leaving Thursday for a visit in Leamington, Ontario, Canada.

Mrs. Ledy, Stedman, attended the funeral of Mrs. John Forman at the Bell Funeral Home in Birmingham Monday afternoon. Mrs. Forman was 87 years old at the time of her death. She was the daughter of Cooper and Eliza Pickering, who were original settlers of Southfield Township. Mrs. Sherman's parents and Mrs. Forman's parents came from England together. Three sons survive her: William C. Bertram and Leland Forman. Mrs. Forman was buried in the Franklin Cemetery.

Mrs. Fred Lenz attended a show or honoring Mrs. Lyman Gregory, the former Betty Bradshaw, at the home of Mrs. Gregory's aunt, Mrs. Jack Robinson, of Grandville Avenue, Detroit, on Saturday evening.

Edwin Tamm is confined to a hospital in Florida, for treatment on his leg, and was unable to come to Farmington for the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Augusta Tamm.

Mrs. L. E. McConnell has joined her husband in Los Angeles, where Mr. McConnell has accepted a position with Republic Pictures.

Several from Farmington attended the International State Convention on Sunday and Monday, October 6 and 7 at Poncard, Michigan. Attending from Farmington were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith, Mrs. Clara Wilson, Mrs. Zaida Steele, Mrs. Ethel Gibson and Pearl Gibson. They report a very enjoyable and profitable meeting. They motored home after the closing banquet Monday evening.
