Mrs. N. C. Hill returned home Friday from a visit with her mother in St. Louis, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schafer and family spent the week end at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Schafer of Halsted Road.

Mrs. Floyd Howard attended a Christian lecture at Windsor, Sunday evening.

The officers of the West Farmington Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Bush Wednesday night to discuss plans for the coming year.

Miss Joyce Gerds of Michigan State College spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gerds of Halsted Road.

Martin Hults and Mr. and Mrs. Spazer Hults and daughter, Mary, were Tuesday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hults in Dearborn.

Miss Eva Hibbler of Redford spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Bush and accompanied them to Inlay City Sunday to help celebrate their mother's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Van Dell and son of Detroit have purchased the Ed Knight property on Halsted Road and are living there now.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal McCormick and daughter, Barbara, are visiting the former's mother at St. Ignace for a few days. Mrs. McCormick is the former Evelyn Hill of Hagerstown Highway.

Miss Howard is attending the Saturday morning classes at the Art-Craft Society in Detroit.

David Bush had the misfortune to fall Wednesday afternoon, cutting his hip quite severely.

Mrs. Harry McCormick and Mrs. Dora Jones attended the WCTU

Guests at the meeting of Farmington Exchange Club last week were Mr. Paul L. Henry of Consumers Power Company, Pontiac, who has been working with Judge Arthur Moore, County Chairman of the U.S.O. Drive, and Walter L. Burson of Michigan Bell Telephone Company, who showed a USO film.

Exchangeites then discussed the USO drive, and the part they expect to play in raising the local quota. Paul Paré is chairman, and a committee has been selected to work with him.

Next Wednesday, October 30, has been designated "Open Club Day" and Delos Hamlin is program chairman.

Saracen Killing
The course of the Saracen conquests can almost be traced by the glazed and decorated wall tiles of their buildings. Many of the tiles produced during those periods still adorn the ancient mosques and shrines of Bagdad and Damascus.

Birth of Amber
Millions of years ago, in what scientists call the Tertiary period, resin flowed from countless pine trees that covered Balise swamps. Vegetation decayed in layers, water and shifting sands covered the mass, time and pressure completed the process by turning the resin into hard, brittle, brightly gleaming, yellow amber that holds the electric charge and bears a trace of the fragrance of its ancient pine source.
