WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-M

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Carter left last Wednesday night for Idaho, where they expect to spend most of the winter. They are making the trip by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ault visited the Robert Horvaths in Redford Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, from Gaylor, Michigan, were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis one day last week and called upon a number of old friends in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill were formerly residents of West Point Park.

Mrs. Edward Stropowski, from Wayne, was calling upon West Point Park relatives Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Stropowski had just returned from a vacation trip which included Pittsburgh, New York and Chicago.

Mrs. Melvin Strom and baby daughter, also from Wayne, accompanied Mrs. Stropowski in her visit to our community.

Mrs. Margaret Martin is spending a few days with relatives in Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault were visitors in Plymouth Friday.

Mrs. Joseph Sidelink was calling on old neighbors on Blackstone Avenue, Detroit, Friday.

Fred Ault was visiting with her niece, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, over on Clarita Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Judd, with their son and youngest daughter, from near Grosse Pointe, were out one evening last week calling on their elder daughter, Norma, who is spending the fall and winter with her grandmother, Mrs. E. W. Stange.

Lucian Gilbert, of Detroit, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chavey.

Mr. and Mrs. George Welch of Mayfield Avenue spent last Sunday with friends in Detroit.

Edwina Stropowski, Jr., from Wayne, was calling in West Point Park Sunday afternoon.

As the result of accidentally driving a screw-driver through one hand a few weeks ago Edward L. Stauch of Hubbard Avenue has been suffering with blood poisoning.

Stanley Chavey, Mayfield Avenue, is on vacation. He has been enjoying some hunting.

Nancy Varhol, who is spending the fall and winter with Mrs. Ruth Smith, in Detroit, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol, during the week-end.

Robert Timonen, whose parents lately moved here from the Upper Peninsula, is a new pupil in the Pierson School.

Valerie parties are in fashion. Mrs. Herman Schulz and Mrs. Harold McVicar engaged in one expedition and Mr. and Mrs. Sidelink also collected a nice amount.

Valerie parties are in fashion. Mrs. Herman Schulz and Mrs. Harold McVicar engaged in one expedition and Mr. and Mrs. Sidelink also collected a nice amount.

Among those who have obtained their pheasants are Robert Hunter, Gordon Vance, Russell Ault, Donald Bohlinger and Clyde Buckingham.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange entertained Mr. Stange's sister and nephew from Detroit at dinner Sunday.

Forrest Ault was calling at the Leo Woods place near Wayne Friday evening.

On their way to Grand Rapids to enjoy a week-end hunting trip, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. L. Johnson, from over on Chilton, stopped in to visit with Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Talman, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Talman and their daughter, Ina Mae, have returned from their vacation trip to California. Accompanying them home were Mr. and Mrs. Dail Talman and their baby daughter, Ina Mae. The young couple, who have been living in California, now expect to make their home in Michigan.

In honor of her birthday several of her neighborhood friends gathered at the home of Mrs. E. W. Stange on Mayfield Ave. Saturday evening and aided in celebrating. The time was pleasantly spent in conversation and the singing of favorite songs with Mrs. Gordon Vance at the piano. Birthday cake, with ice cream and other tasty accompaniments was nicely served by Mrs. Stange's grand-daughter, Miss Norma Judd, assisted by Miss Alice Vance.

During the owner's absence, small urchins broke into a locked outbuilding on the rear of Mayfield Ave. property and boldly carried off a number of valued articles stored in the place. The circumstances were all the more aggravating because of the suspected fact that older boys were inspiring and cooperating with the little folks.

CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

By MRS. AXEL RUTILA
TELEPHONE FARM. 1124-M

Major and Mrs. Robert Gordon, formerly of Cambridge, were feted at a house-warming party at their new home in Redford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shipley of Berrien Springs called on old friends and neighbors in the community Sunday.

The GL 1 Cub resumed their meeting for the coming year, when they met at the High School on Thursday evening. The Cubbing program takes in the whole family, whence the meeting is a regular get-together of neighbors and their youngsters.

The Cubbs entertained with Halloween's skits and displayed plenty of handicraft, which speaks well for the Den Mother and Dad, the Cubmaster, and all the committee people. The great deal of parental cooperation which is necessary in the program, seems to be forthcoming in this group.

The Russ Wnacks and Mrs. Carl Waack motored to Bay City on Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kufel (Edith Waack).

Mrs. Ben Sinclair attended the October committee meeting of the Oakland County Girl Scout organization in Birmingham on Monday evening, as Clarenceville's representative.

The Erie Parkers of Semholme spent Sunday evening with friends in Windsor, Canada.

The Dobbler family have taken up residence in their new home on St. Francis.

Mrs. William Spennberg of Oxford entertained her fellow Eastern Star officers at her home on Saturday evening. Congratulations to the new Lodge officers and may they have a successful year.

The C. L. Cooks entertained a group of friends at Sunday evening supper.

There are those of the community who have been hieling themselves to the golf course these beautiful days. Rev. and Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Hall of Angling Rd. and Mrs. Verne Woodcock of Dearing, Mrs. Fred Bailey and Mrs. Cliff Culham are some of the enthusiasts.

Mrs. Sinclair of Eight Mile entertained at a shower in honor of her daughter, Evelyn, who is a bride-elect.

The Junior Class would appreciate our attendance at their Hop on November 9 at Botsford Inn. Gene Regis' orchestra will furnish the music.

Mrs. Harvey Barnes entertained the members of her Girl Scout Troop Committee on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Caskman, Mrs. Egerton, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Lawerson and Mrs. Walsh were present. The group planned many interesting projects for their scouts.

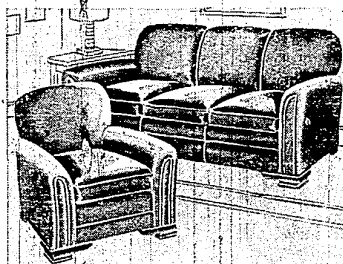

Indoor activities — listening to a re-broadcast of a "Meet the Misses" program.
