WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-M

Mrs. Leslie Boland is returning home this weekend after a fortnight's visit with relatives in West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault and daughter, Miss Lora Anne Ault, left Friday evening for a three-day visit with relatives in New London, O.

Mrs. Margaret Martin was in Detroit Saturday evening attending a bridal shower in honor of one of her granddaughters.

Robert Boland, from Redford, was a caller in West Point Park Saturday evening.

Mrs. Harold McVicar was a visitor in Plymouth Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sidlaker were visiting in Pontiac Thursday. Mrs. Stanley Shilling gave a dinner party Sunday to six of her friends from Detroit.

The Browns, on Brettmeyer St. entertained several Detroit friends at dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph Voorhes and Mrs. Auldin Ault called on Mrs. Nora Cowger in Brent Hospital, Highland Park one evening last week.

Because of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Cowger, Mrs. Charles Bonar has been called home from Oklahoma where she was in attendance at her mother-in-law's funeral.

Mrs. Cecil Williams was reported on the sick list over the week end. One day last week, the car driven by Mrs. Ervin Bollinger, while delivering mail, skidded and ran into a tree. Fortunately Mrs. Bollinger was unharmed, but the car was badly damaged.

Rev. Kauranen, from Upper Michigan, has been visiting with his son, Norman Kauranen and family on Mayfield Avenue.

John, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Imonen, of Hubbard Avenue is about to enter a Detroit Hospital, where he is scheduled to suffer a leg amputation.

Mrs. Norman Kauranen and children visited Mrs. Kauranen's mother in Detroit Saturday afternoon.

New tenants are now occupying what is known as the "White Rat Place" on Hubbard Avenue.

Two West Point Park young people, Wayne Ault and Miss Shirley Ault, were among the Farmington High seniors, who had their pictures taken at the school last week. This was early preparation for the graduation season next June.

A committee of mothers carried out careful plans for a Halloween party in the kindergarten of the Pierson School last Thursday morning. Thirty-six little tots, mostly in costume, thoughtfully enjoyed the affair.

Sixth graders, who attend Wilcox school, were participants in a pleasant Halloween party at the school last Thursday. Fines were imposed on pupils failing to appear in costume.

A cake with one candle was in readiness for Baby Ina Mae Tallman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dall Tallman, at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tallman, on Mayfield Ave., last Wednesday, October 30th.

Friends and relatives were attending John Varhol, Shadydale Ave., in a birthday celebration last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fegert, whose marriage was an event of Saturday, October 26th, are taking up residence in Detroit where an arrangement has been made ready.

Joanne Shay, the fifteen year old girl who disappeared from her home neighborhood in West Point Park five months ago, has been located. She had long desired to visit California and is now with relatives in that state. Friends here have heard from her.

The present soap shortage with the widespread marking of window panes during the Halloween season and the price of sweets and scarcity of sugar prevented full practice of the "begging" custom. Signs along Seven Mile Road, hayfields were burned and a considerable amount of fodder destroyed. There was a raging destruction as they wandered down Farmington Road when the police got in pursuit. After that, the band disappeared into the woods which for years has been a refuge for young Halloweeners being chased. New porch lights and watch dogs are said to have interfered with many of the scheduled activities.

Several householders, who had converted small out-buildings into next too houses are "hopping mad." These places, when topped made a sound almost musical to the ears of Halloween pranksters. But valuable articles of steel impossible to replace were damaged beyond repair.

Mrs. Harold McVicar and Mrs. Herman Schult together arranged a Halloween party for the young folks of their homes on the lawn of the Schult residence on Shady-side Avenue last Thursday evening. There were the usual stunts and also plenty of hot dogs and other favorite foods. Boys and girls participating in the affair requested that it be repeated at Thanksgiving.

Edwin Henry was observed by "Open House" in the Neighborhood Church last Thursday evening. A committee of ladies was in charge and passed goodies to callers. A large number of old and young, stopped in to rest and visit. Billy Varhol pleased by rendering a solo "In the Garden," in his usual good voice.

The most attractive appearance was a black velvet Fauntleroy outfit worn by four year old Marion Johnson, but which had been the property of her Uncle Bob Hunter, a good many years before.

Interesting part of the Neighborhood Bible School program on Sunday morning was the presentation by older great grandmothers of the community to members of the birthday band. They were in honor of the 90th birthday of Mrs. Leslie Mansfield, now a resident of St. Petersburg, Fla., but formerly living in this section. Mrs. Mansfield had been present at the opening of the Neighborhood Bible School several years back.

It is still planned to have a Hymn-Sing along with special music at the Neighborhood Church Saturday, Nov. 16. All singers or not, are welcome.

Mrs. William Farrell from Scranston, Pa., and a girl friend of Mrs. Williams, was a visitor at the Sherman residence on Mayfield Avenue last Saturday evening.

GRACE HOWARD IS BRIDE OF GEORGE BIDWELL

Miss Grace Virginia Howard, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howard, 2925 Angling Road, became the bride of George W. Bidwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Bidwell, 2137 Ontario Street, at a double ring ceremony held Saturday evening, October 26, at 7:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church in Farmington. Rev. A. Stanley Stone performed the ceremony.

The bridegroom in marriage by her father, wore a gown of nylon fabric, with a matching of nylon flowers, fashioned with a y-shaped neckline. Her finger tip veil was held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of soft white chrysanthemums, with white satin streamers.

Maid of honor was Grace Chapman, who wore pink net and carried a bouquet of orchid and white roses and baby chrysanthemums.

Best man was Edith Bidwell, wore blue net and carried bouquets of yellow roses and white baby chrysanthemums. Mary Jane Bidwell was flower girl, and she wore a pink dress and carried a colonial bouquet.

Lloyd Ferry was best man, and ushers were Miller Brown and Melvin Reeves.

Following the ceremony a reception for 150 guests was held at the I.O.O.F. Hall on Inlander Road. The young couple then left for a honeymoon trip through Northern Michigan and Canada.

PLANS SERVICES

REV. E. I. HENRY

Rev. Edwin I. Henry of the First Baptist Church of Passaic, New Jersey will conduct special Evangelistic services at the First Baptist Church of Farmington on Sunday, November 10, and continue through the 17th.

A great song service with the best in musical talent has been planned for each meeting. A children's service will be conducted Wednesday and Friday at 4:00 p.m.; Young People's Service each evening at 7:30 p.m.; regular service at 8:00 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all of Farmington's residents to attend these special meetings.

Ref. Edwin I. Henry, after attending high school in Philadelphia, went to work and to night school. All during the "depression" of the early 30's he was in the Loan and Mortgage Departments of a large bank and saw in the experiences of those with whom he came into contact, how deep was the need of the human heart for God. He believes that it was against the background of these experiences, that the Lord gave him the call to the ministry.

At the age of thirty, he entered the Collegiate Department of Eastern and graduated June, 1944, with A.B. and Th.B. degrees.

While in the Seminary, received a call to the Brandywine Baptist Church, Chadds Ford, Penn. — one of the oldest Baptist Churches in the United States. Served as pastor from February, 1940, to November, 1944. While there, celebrated her 25th anniversary in June, 1942. Meetings were held regularly by the congregation as early as 1822, although the Church was not formally constituted as a Baptist Church until 1715. He came to the First Baptist Church, Passaic, N.J., on November 1, 1944. Rev. Henry also uses his voice in God's work. During his seminary days he was a soloist for about two years on a daily radio program, "God's News Behind the News." He has done gospel also and evangelistic work in Eastern Pennsylvania and in Washington, D.C.; also choir directing and church solo work.

Uncle Sam Says

Atom bombs will soon be exploding over the Pacific Ocean in a naval operation to assure your security. At first glance, there seem little connection between atom bombs bursting over a fleet of ships and your continued investment in United States Savings Bonds. Think a moment, friend. Allotment of a portion of your current income in savings bonds is also an operation to assure family security.
