Obituary

Mrs. Robert Fredericks

Friends in this community were greatly shocked to learn of the sudden death last Saturday afternoon, November 9, of Mrs. Robert Fredericks, at Mount Park Hospital, St. Petersburg, Florida.

Mrs. Fredericks had been in ill health for some time, and on November 1 underwent an operation from which she was believed to be satisfactorily recovering, but a blood clot formed and she passed away November 9.

Surviving are her husband, Robert Fredericks, her aged mother, Mrs. Leslie Mansfield, two daughters, Mrs. Ed Tamm of Florida and Mrs. Henry Miner of Detroit, a son and a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Mrs. Miner, who formerly lived in Farmington, is for St. Petersburg immediately after receiving word of her mother's death.

Mrs. Fredericks was a New Englander and came to West Point Park about twenty years ago. She lived in this community until a few years ago when, for reasons of health, she and her family moved to St. Petersburg.

Mrs. Fredericks was a leader in church and community circles. Her friends remember her for the intense love she had for flowers of all kinds, and her talent for composing pleasant bits of verse brought her many admirers.

The sympathy of this community is extended to her family.

Friday evening, November 15, at the First Baptist Church, Farmington, will be known as Sunday School night in the special Evangelistic services, conducted by Rev. Edwin L. Henry of the First Baptist Church of Passaic, New Jersey.

It will also be "Request" night, and among other requested sacred numbers, Rev. Henry will sing "The Holy City" by Stephen Adolphe. Those attending the services will also be privileged to hear Jean Stompell and her violin.

Mr. Henry will preach at both morning and evening services on Sunday. A special musical program has been planned.

A most cordial invitation is given to all Farmington residents to attend these meetings.

Bond School Club Will Meet Monday

The Bond School Mothers Club will hold their regular meeting on Monday, November 18, at 8:00 p.m. at the school.

Mr. Joseph K. Boltz will speak to parents and friends on the subject of citizenship. Come and hear about the bridge and bazaar party scheduled for December 5 and 6. Refreshments will be served by the fourth grade mothers.
