Mrs. Edith Graham received word that her brother-in-law, John Grace, of Clarenceville, is very sick and in Mt. Carmel Hospital. Mr. Grace has many friends in this locality.

Several from here attended the Woman's Christian Guild dinner at Emory's Restaurant on Novi Rd. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Graham entertained the Good Cheer Class of the Walled Lake Baptist Church Friday evening at a bay ride party with fun and refreshments.

Starr Heliker returned home Monday with a nine point deer, a reward of his hunting trip north.

Mrs. Edith Graham visited her brother, Arthur Davis, of Highland, last Monday.

Mrs. Irvin Knapp, Mrs. Charles Heliker and Mrs. William Knapp motored to Harland Friday morning to attend a brush, demonstration and breakfast at the home of Mrs. Lee Giegler. Everyone present wore funny hats, and Mrs. Charles Heliker received a prize for the modeling of her hat, and Mrs. Graham was given a prize for being the oldest lady present.

The West Farmington Extension Group met at West Bloomfield Town Hall on Wednesday, November 13, with the meeting called to order at ten o'clock. A business meeting was held and plans were made for a Christmas party to be held December 4, with a pot luck dinner at noon. Everyone will bring a hand made present. After the business meeting the regular lesson for the month was on making things for Christmas. The leaders, Mrs. Harold Shepard and Mrs. George Campbell brought a lesson on wreath making before the class, and everyone took great interest in the work, taking home a hand made evergreen wreath. The next lesson will be January 22 on ironing flat pieces and shirts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey are the parents of a baby boy, Terry Russell Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heliker called on Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson and their new baby of Pontiac, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Glette and new baby son of Stratford, Lakes.

Mrs. Harry Heliker, Mr. and Mrs. James Heliker and Mrs. Sarah Murray of Pontiac called on Mrs. Charles Heliker, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Doris Jones of Twelve Mile Road has been sick and unable to be out.

Rev. and Mrs. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. William Stiles, Mrs. Hall of Angling Road and Mrs. Mona Hall attended a Sunday School Forum and Banquet at the Grand River Baptist Church on Friday evening.

Have been getting rather mixed up in the announcements in the new arrival department. The Wurtzbacher Mrs. have a new daughter, the Tim Rapplid's a new son and the Donald Beyers a new daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Swarbut and Mr. and Mrs. Charter and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon were among those who attended a District Boy Scout meeting and banquet in Belleville last Wednesday evening. Mr. Dixon was awarded for his outstanding work in the Scouting program.

About every home in this vicinity has been minus its masculine member since last week end, for he has joined the other thousands of husbands in the North. Harvey Dault, the Mitchells and Dowdys of Ontario have the pointed animals in their possession. Messrs. Gallegos and Lehman returned without getting their buck, as did Mr. Nelson of Oxford and Mr. Haskell and Mr. Moore of Negaunee.

Mrs. Ernest Falkeer of Seminole motored to Jackson with friends on Saturday.

Couch Samuels called out recruits for basketball and the season got under way on Monday at the Volney Smith Gymnasium, which we are able to use for another season through the district's school board. Their kindness and cooperation is appreciated. Mr. Ferguson, principal of Volney Smith, visited Edgewood and Central Schools' lunchrooms last week, prior to the opening of the new cafeteria.

Sharon Vandenberg of Potomac entertained a group of neighborhood children on her eighth birthday Wednesday, and Dick Meyer of Rensselaer celebrated his ninth birthday with a party on Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Butler and Mrs. Eva Ross attended the showing of "Rose Marie" at the Cass Theatre, after enjoying dinner at the Book Cad. Hall.

The C. L. Cooks of Colwell are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter at Mt. Carmel Hospital on Monday.
