SALEM CHURCH SCHOOL GROUP VISITS ORPHANAGE

The Junior Class of the Salem Church School, Mrs. Lenore Glidemeter, teacher, presented a drama, "The First Thanksgiving," at the Church School Assembly Sunday, and each member brought gifts of food, soap and washcloths which were presented to the Evangelical and Reformed Home for Orphans and Old Folks in Detroit.

Following a dinner at Salem Church, the class visited the orphanage, where it was conducted on a tour of the building by the building superintendent. Members of the class are ReAnn Little, Lenore Glidemeter, Gail Stackler, Anna Mae Tarr, Wilma Tamm, Viola Tamm, Hilda Mias, Nancy Lutz, Arlene Rosow, Mary Ellen Goetz, Catherine Tessmer, Richard Tyler, Werner Mackl, Donald Lawrence, Jon Schultz, Allen Schweizer and Gary Walters. Children, age 9 to 12, are invited to visit this class, which is one of the most active in any church school.

Bond School Club Sponsors Keno Parties

The Bond School Club is sponsoring two keno parties, to be held on Friday and Saturday evenings, December 6 and 7, at Bond School, located on Orchard Lake Road at Thirteen Mile Road.

An exceptionally fine variety of prizes for men, women and children will be given away both evenings. Proceeds from the parties will be used to buy a movie projection machine for the children of Bond School.

Tickets, including both games and refreshments, can be obtained from any member, or by calling Mrs. W. Mathews at Farmington 0540-53.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Paderka celebrated their wedding anniversary by having dinner with a few friends at the Seaford Grotto.

NAVY PREPARES ANTARCTIC OPERATION

WASHINGTON, D. C. — SOUNDPHOTO — One of the largest polar task forces ever assembled by the Navy will depart from the U. S. ports early in December for a 10,000-mile dash to the Antarctic to conduct a series of exercises of a military nature. Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, (left), polar hero and veteran explorer, will be in charge of the Navy 1946-1947 Navy Antarctic expedition and Capt. Richard H. Cruzen, (right) will be task force commander. Vice Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, (center) Deputy Chief of Naval Operations, looks on as the heads of the Navy's "Operation High Jump" discuss their plans at the Navy Department last week.

NOVI NEWS

By MRS. GEORGE WAITE
TELEPHONE NORTHVILLE 954-53

Several of the Rebekah ladies attended the District meeting at South Lyon on Thursday, and also the dinner and meeting in the evening.

Mrs. Don Walters and Mrs. Florence Martin motored to Ogemaw County, and returned home with their husbands on Wednesday, from where they had been hunting. As usual, Don got his deer.

Mrs. Maggie Waite and Mr. and Mrs. George Waite were Royal Oak visitors on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tiffany entertained relatives from Detroit on Sunday.

Burton Munn accompanied Mr. Hult to White Cloud on Thursday for a week's deer hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Staman entertained Mrs. Staman and her companion and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clark of Northville on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Shirley Shepherd returned home from Canada where the Eastern Stars put on the work.

The Past Noble Grands met at the home of Mrs. Irene Staman on Wednesday for a pot luck dinner, and at this meeting it was voted to go to Black's White House for their Christmas dinner and party.

Mrs. Gus Zessou accompanied Mrs. Howard Thayer to Yellandt one day the past week to see the latter's grandmother and former's aunt, who was officially ill. Word has just been received that she has passed away.

Don't forget the degree team party at the Ball on Thursday, December 5, with Mrs. Elsie Brooks, Mrs. Opal Ramsey and Mrs. Ruth Putnam as hostesses.

Mrs. Jett Hamilton entertained Mrs. Dora Ricker of Detroit and Mrs. Ida Hammond and Mrs. Grace Fuller of Northville on Friday.

Little Mathew Staman is out of school because of illness but at this writing is reported gaining.

Mrs. Dora Hicks and son, Floyd of Detroit, were calling on old neighbors on Friday.

BAZAAR DINNER RESERVATIONS NOW BEING TAKEN

Mrs. Grace Brown and Mrs. Elmo Wastall will gladly take your reservations for the annual dinner and bazaar, sponsored by the Women's Society of the Methodist Church. The affair is being held at the church hall on Friday, December 6, and serving will begin at 5:30 p.m., continuing until all are served.

The bazaar will open at 3:00 p.m. The ladies have prepared a lovely selection of hand made articles, including aprons, towels, pillow cases, handkerchiefs, and many other items. There will be canned goods and baked goods, and special booths of interest to the children.

You are extended a cordial invitation to visit the bazaar.

Band Boosters Club To Meet December 3

The regular meeting of the Farmington Band Boosters will be held Tuesday evening, December 3 at the Band House, beginning promptly at 8:00 p.m.

The Christmas party, which is for active members only, will be held on Thursday, December 13, at the home of Mrs. Ed Smith.

It was incorrectly stated last week that the "Meet The Missus" program, scheduled for January 21, was for the membership only. This program, however, is open to the public, and it is hoped that a large number of guests will attend, as a splendid and entertaining program has been arranged.

Tickets must be secured ahead of time, and reservations made for "Meet The Missus", so make your plans now. You may make reservations with a member of the Band Boosters, or with Lloyd Smith at the band house.

INTEREST FOUND AT METHODIST YOUTH GROUP

The thirteen through fifteen year old youth of Farmington are invited to enjoy wholesome fellowship in a program especially arranged for this age group at the First Methodist Church each Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock, beginning December 1. "Sharing Our Treasures" is the general theme for the month of December. The emphasis at the opening meeting is on "Sharing Our Time."

Learning by doing is the purpose of the fellowship group plan. Interested young people should feel free to come and join with others of their own age in this fine venture into practical Christian living.

Many successful business and professional people testify to the good training afforded by the Fellowship's character building association.

For those who would be kept from attending because of that reason. Good singing; meeting other fine youth in an atmosphere of wholesomeness; enjoying the best things of life — if these appeal to you, come to the meetings beginning next Sunday.

Prospective Lineups For Basketball Given

Both the Varsity and Reserve basketball teams show great promise for the 1946-47 season. The lineups are subject to changes at any time.

At present the Varsity team consists of Neff, Hibern, Weaver, Buchanan, Fend, Lawton, Greco, Fisher, Martindale, Tyler, Her, Isley, Bertin, Dellinger, Shoemaker and Wastall.

The reserves are Nichols, Bryant, McLean, Ratliff, Van Every, Seeger, Hanson, Lind, Thomas, Quisenberry, D. Howard, L. Howard, Foster, Layland, Yoder, Hammann, C. Goers, Carley, Scott, Lathrup and Chafon.

This week they are learning the plays and fundamentals. B.A.

Obituary

Mrs. Jewell LaFreniere, whose home was at 20425 Delaware, passed away at Grace Hospital, Detroit, after an illness of only ten days. Mrs. LaFreniere was born November 8, 1896 at Sarnia, Canada. Her mother, Mrs. Alice Prosser, died earlier this month.

Surviving are her husband, Fred, a son, Fred Jr., two brothers, Raymond and Clarence Prosser and a sister, Mrs. Agnes Kahl.

The body was at the Heene Funeral Home, and then taken to the residence until services were held Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m. from Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Burial was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

Fire Causes
Some 300,000 fires occurred in times during the past year and the majority of them were attributed to one of the following causes: Rubbish, defective chimneys, sparks on flammable roofs, defective heating equipment, careless smoking and use of matches, flammable liquids, electrical defects.
