STATE POLICE USE MOBILE PHONES

MODERN CRIME FIGHTER — Capt. Donald S. Leonard, head of the Uniformed Division, Michigan State Police, can direct the activities of his men from his automobile, probably the best equipped in the country for police work. His car was recently installed with The Michigan Bell Telephone Company's new mobile radiotelephone which connects with all land line telephones in the U.S. In addition, the car is equipped with two-way state police radio, a Detroit Police Department monitoring receiver, standard radio set and a transcriber for recording verbal notes.

Civic Theatre Open All Day Thanksgiving

The Civic Theatre will be open Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, from 1:30 p.m. on, the program running continuously throughout the afternoon and evening. Special holiday features will be included on the program.

Fibre Rugs
Roll away heavy rugs in summer time. Use a scrub brush and soap suds on fibre rugs, and you'll be surprised at the way the color revives. Wash up the floor underneath occasionally—most fibre rugs are reversible and a clean floor keeps the rug clean.

Draft Rejections
In the physical examinations of men for military service, 88 out of every 100 rural men were rejected because of physical defects, while only 43 out of every 100 urban men were rejected.

CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

By MRS. AXEL RUTILA
TELEPHONE, FARM. 1124-M

The Boy Scouts of Clatsop wish to thank those who patronized their dance on Friday night and the merchants who donated door prizes, the winners being Anton Spirik of Five Mile Road, John Fitzpatrick of Highland Park, Mr. DelMontier of Livonia Township, Mrs. Van denburgh of Redford Township and a party from Romulus, Michigan. Two thousand copies of the Metropolitan Grand River Classified Buyers' Guide, prepared in conjunction with the dance, have been distributed to the residents of Redford, Clarenceville and Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bailey flew to Cleveland on Friday evening to attend that city's air show, returning home the same night.
Mrs. Weber of Chicago is here for a time with her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Cook of Colwell.
The snow of Tuesday put the youngsters in a frenzy. The very young were out, rolling it up, before 3:30 a.m. and by nine o'clock there was hardly a speck about the school playgrounds. It put the teachers in a Christmas mood, already, with Thanksgiving not even over. Some were mimeographing Santa's and getting ready to put up Christmas decorations. All it takes to get the holiday spirit is a bit of snow — it makes one wonder how people living in a warm climate ever get the spirit.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens of St. Francis were entertained by their children on the occasion of their 35th wedding anniversary, by attending dinner and the showing of "Henry V" in downtown Detroit.

Our town is getting a lot of unfair publicity with the holdups that have been taking place — it is hoped that we hear of no more. Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Egerton took 19 of their Girl Scouts to visit the Detroit Art Museum and Library last Saturday.

Mrs. Samuel Fink entertained her card club on Tuesday.
The Agars of St. Francis are receiving congratulations on the birth of a new little son.

The Edgewood Brownies entertained their mothers on Wednesday, as did the Central Brownies, under leader Moore on Thursday of the week previous.

The Horace Durhams will entertain their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leonard and three children from Detroit at their home on Thanksgiving Day.
