Living Kangaroos

The largest living kangaroos stand about eight feet high and have heads as big as those of sheep, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. The largest extinct kangaroos, however, had heads the size of a Shetland pony's and reached a height of ten feet or more.

WASHINGTON DIGEST . . .

of a screaming minority to implant Communism on our soil and thus attempt to bring to this country the very thing from which America was supposed to be the escape, tyranny of the minority.

Of late it has become the style to sneer at the majority. The "vulgar herd" and the "mob" were the contemptuous epithets of kings. The modern majority-scorner is more careful of his language. He phrases it so that it will appeal to the "peasant and worker" or to the readers of persuasive and expensive page advertisements in metropolitan papers. The language differs when it comes from the extreme right and the extreme left, but its purpose is the same: minority rule. Totalitarianism as produced by a Hitler or a Stalin is not too different from that more subtly suggested by the powerful pressure group in a capitalistic country.

The 80th Congress has a tougher job than the 79th. We hope it will be able to handle it. It was not elected to smash labor. It was elected to carry out a mandate (among others) to help keep labor from smashing itself.

PARTIES SPLIT ON HOT ISSUES

It may be that after the next election we can get down to the old party lines again, but it can't be done yet. There is still a pretty bad scrambling of Democrats and Republicans on many issues which will split parties as it has before.

It will be a relief if we do get back to honest labels again.

The British are still having their troubles on this score. The "right" have discussed changing their name. They have done it before. They have been known as the "Tory," the "Unionist" and the "National" as well as the "Conservative." Sir Hartley Shawcross, brilliant British prosecutor, taunted them about this recently and even went so far as calling them "neo-Nazis."

This sounded strange from those dignified lips which hurled one of the most restrained and yet most devastating charges against the Nuernberg war criminals that I have ever heard in a courtroom. It would take a pretty inflamed imagination to see in the great majority of American or British conservatives, a similarity to the Nazis — a different breed of cats!

MARIANNE READY TO FORGIVE FRITZ

'Twas the day after Christmas in Frankfurt, Germany, 1945, when all through the other there was static enough to make a trans-Atlantic broadcast impossible. I had an exclusive story, so I sent it as a dispatch to David Wills, my substitute, who was sitting at the microphone in Washington to cope with such contingencies.

The story (I said in my dispatch) would probably be denied, and I admitted it seemed incredible, for it revealed a plan of the French government to help re-populate France by admitting German war prisoners to citizenship. It seemed impossible, that, with the ancient Franco-German hatred so recently fanned to new fury, Marianne would take her "traditional enemy" to her bosom.

The story was broadcast and that was the end, until, some 10 months later, it was confirmed in a matter-of-fact statement of the French minister of population, then touring America.

A copy of the original dispatch which I exhumed from the files reflects my feeling in its incredibility as I stood amidst the ruins of a German city with the memories of a twice-devastated France clear in my mind. The new idea now apparently is accepted without comment.

How well the plan will succeed, I do not know. But to me it is a comforting thought that it has been proposed because it shows so clearly how war hates are artificial things, and bear no part in the relationships between individuals.

VETERANEWS

From the OFFICE OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS
LANSING

WAIVER OF DISABILITY PENSIONS NOT BINDING

Veterans who signed statements at time of discharge that they were in "good health" and did not desire to file a disability claim did not "sign away their rights." They can file a claim for service-incurred wounds or disabilities any time after their discharge. This point is covered by Sec. 105 of the "G. I. Bill" which reads:

"No person in the armed forces shall be required to sign a statement of any nature to the origin, incurrence, or aggravation of any disease or injury he may have, and any such statement against his own interest signed at any time, shall be null and void and of no force or effect."

VETERANS TOTALLY DISABLED AFTER DISCHARGE MAY BE PENSIONED

Veterans of either World War I or World War II who become permanently and totally disabled from disease or injury incurred after discharge from service may be entitled to a pension of $60 a month. The $60 pension automatically increases to $72 for those veterans who have been on the rolls for 10 years or for those who have reached the age of 65. This applies only to veterans whose disability is not service connected.

Total and permanent disability for Veterans Administration purposes is defined as inability to follow continuously any substantially gainful occupation, and the disability seems reasonably certain to last the rest of the veteran's life. This pension can be paid veterans so disabled whose income is less than $1,000 a year if single, or $2,500 a year if married or if a widower with minor children.

Detailed information on above subjects can be secured from the local veteran's counsellor.

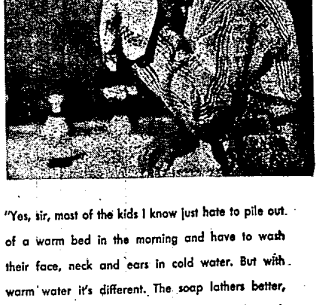
GEE MOM... you won't have to check my ears and neck any more . . . washing isn't half bad when there's HOT WATER ON TAP



"Yes, sir, most of the kids I know just hate to pile out of a warm bed in the morning and have to wash their face, neck and ears in cold water. But with warm water it's different. The soap lathers better, the dirt comes off easier and best of all it feels good.

"Believe me, hot water right at the faucet is going to be a must in my home when I grow up."

Yes, Johnnie, there's nothing like an automatic gas water heater to encourage greater cleanliness and happier better living.
