gone up temporarily—but as high as $1 a pound, and milk to 20 and 22 cents a quart.

Charles Figg, state director of agriculture, recently forecast that prices would remain "firm" for several years, due to limited production and an expectancy of continued demand.

The American industrial situation is full of paradoxes—facts which appear to be a direct contradiction.

For example: George T. Christopher, president of the Packard Motor Car Company, Detroit, said the other day that absenteeism is greater today than it was during war-time. More absenteeism! Why? you ask. Christopher's conclusion is that many workers shun work because they are getting the highest wage in history. "Here is a summary in the case of one woman employee who was absent and was interviewed by a nurse sent to find out if she was ill," he said. "The woman declared quite frankly that her spending money was backing up and she wanted time to get rid of it."

The worker's candid comment explains the illogic of why we have low production per worker in a period of our greatest prosperity—a veritable fantastic situation. By reverse, you may assume that employee production will increase in a period of hard times when spending money does not back up!

It reminds us of a remark made by the director of a major state department following the November election. Reading the news that the people had voted a $270 million bonus and had diverted 75 per cent of the sales tax back to local governments, he remarked: "The department should proceed with its previously adopted program of state-wide improvements. I am convinced the people want to spend money."

Farmers Loss

The farmer's annual loss from fire will build about 40,000 homes of a value of $2,500 each, enough to house a population of 250,000 people. His annual loss will build 50,000 barns at $2,000 each and these structures, stood end to end, would form an unbroken wall 500 miles in length. The replacement of the buildings destroyed requires the cutting of 5,000 acres of U. S. forests each year.

Leslie Bolyard, Raymond Ackerson, Howard Middlewood, Arthur Block and Harold McVicar are among the West Point Park men who have returned home from successful hunting trips.

Mrs. Norbert Schmidt, from near Brighton was a recent visitor in West Point Park.

Mrs. Nora Cowger, ill in a Detroit hospital, is reported not so well again this week.

Mrs. Nola Manning had an attack of flu last week.

Dolores Ault is now assisting with the Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Margaret Martin, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault and Robert Hunter were all guests at the Berland-Santora wedding on the East Side Detroit, Saturday. The bride was a granddaughter of Mrs. Martin's.

Mrs. Albert Owen entertained the ladies of her card club at her home on Mayfield Avenue last Thursday evening. First prizes, handsome neck scarves, were won by Mrs. Vinson and Mrs. Voorhees. Prettily arranged servings of fruit salad with suitable accompaniments, climaxed the affair.

Mrs. Stanley Shilling has returned from a trip to the home of her sister in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Brown, of Bretonville Street, has been quite ill for two weeks.

Mrs. George Welch visited with friends in Detroit Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Martin will be spending the Thanksgiving holidays at the home of her son, Robert Berland, in Detroit.

Little Beverly Varhol is now ill. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Haas, former residents on Hubbard Avenue, but now located down Grand River, have just returned from a two week visit with relatives in Alabama.

Walter Dixon, of Breton Road, but a frequent visitor in West Point Park, returned Friday from a week of hunting near West Branch.

West Point Park has gone in for howling. Practically everyone not handicapped by age, infirmity or family responsibilities has certain hours per week set apart for the Exchangeites gleaned a great deal of knowledge last Wednesday concerning the Flying Fortress, the B-24. For the program at their weekly meeting, they had a film which showed the construction of the fortress, and how production was able to be carried on at the assembly, the space being so small that an ordinary sized man would be unable to get into the compartment.

December 4 has been designated "Ladies Night," and Howard Otis is in charge of the program. Harry McDonald is scheduled as guest speaker on this occasion.

wholesome recreation. Numerous teams have been formed.

Ed Stowe was among the deer-hunters this week end.

The Thanksgiving meeting of the Sunshine Chorus was held in the Neighborhood Church Wednesday afternoon, the 20th. Illness in the community put down the attendance considerably but it was still a most worthy occasion.

Contributions of readings in keeping with the Thanksgiving season were given by Mrs. Margaret Martin, Freda Ault, Mrs. Joseph Stelinkor and Mrs. Herman Schult. Special plans were made for the next meeting which will fall upon December 4th. "Babyhood" will then be the subject followed by the Sunbeam period. Preparations for Christmas will be made. A large attendance is desired.

Mrs. Cecily Willet, who has been convalescing from an operation at the home of her parents in Redford, is expected to return to her home on Mayfield Avenue next week end.

Young folks of the Neighborhood Church had a "Hymn-Sing" of their own in the church last Wednesday evening. A pianist, capable, willing and patient, was on hand for the occasion and fifteen folks sang exactly fifteen songs quite through.

It was a happy, lively event.

At the Neighborhood Bible School Sunday morning eleven children in turn made brief speeches, explaining why he or she was particularly thankful for this Thanksgiving season. One live-wire youngster declared he was thankful for the power to sing. At this session attendance awards were presented to Joanne Craig and Gloria Kavanen.

Folks of the Neighborhood Church community are reminded that the next monthly hymn-sing will be held in the Neighborhood Church on Saturday evening, December 7, at 8 p.m. Several special musical numbers have already been arranged for.

Farmington Kiwanians paid tribute to the Farmington High School football squad and the coaching staff last Wednesday evening at the annual football banquet.

Sam Kosmosky was program chairman for the evening. He introduced Coach Robert Hutton and his assistants Tarmo Maatala and Earl Krausbeck. Coach Hutton introduced this year's lettermen, and the team captain, Don Kolman, presented the captain of next year's team, Jerry Fisher. The members of the reserve team were also presented.

Special guests at the football banquet were the coach of Wayne University and four members of his team. A film was shown, and the coach explained the various football plays shown, pointing out several illegal moves.

Approximately seventy men and boys were guests at the banquet and everyone reported a most enjoyable evening. This annual event is looked forward to by both the football squad and Kiwanians.

On Wednesday, December 3, a business meeting will be held, at which the activities for the year 1947 will be discussed. All members are asked to be on hand and help draft an outline for the new year.
