mile on July 13. It nonors the former President of Hazel Park race track. The James V. Bellanca Memorial Stakes for $25,000 is the top attraction of the closing date of the 132 day meeting, the earliest and longest in Michigan's history. Four events with $20,000 pots are scheduled along with six at $15,000 in what racing director Bert Thompson calls the most attractive stakes program ever offered by Hazel Park. In addition to the purse the winner of each stake will receive a trophy.
