A little table that grows on you

Harden translates the elegance of "big" pieces into a compact little triple-table miracle that helps stretch the space in even a tiny apartment. If you have room for a 19" x 19" table (21" high), you have room for its two 16 1/2" round glide-out companions, too. Harden crafts all three in the hospitable glow of hand-rubbed solid cherry and dresses them up with solid brass pulls. Authentic bamboo-turned legs and classic design let beautiful wood and beautiful workmanship speak for themselves. Where else would you find a piece that does so much for a room and takes up so little of it?
