MARY ANN COOKE MARRIED TO CARL L. KRUEGER

Mary Ann Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooke of Hugo Avenue, became the bride of Carl L. Krueger, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Krueger of Detroit, at a ceremony in the Methodist Church in Farmington at two o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, November 30. Rev. Stone performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with tall baskets of white baby mums and lighted tapers in branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of heavy white satin, cut on princess lines, with a long train. Her full-length veil of illusion was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and satin ribbons.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Leonard Gerhard, a cousin of the bride, wore a gown of peach tulle, cut on princess lines, and carried a bouquet of blue carnations. Miss Madeline Brooks and Miss Shirley Schuman, the bridesmaids and their gowns were of blue tulle and they carried pink carnations.

Roland Krueger was best man for his brother.

Following the ceremony a reception for about two hundred guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The two large wedding cakes were cut for their friends. Guests were present from Gaylord, Eaton Rapids, Lansing and Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Krueger left on Monday for a honeymoon trip to South Dakota, and upon their return they will be at home to their friends on Blackstone Avenue in Detroit.

CORNHUSKER QUINTS CELEBRATE

FAIRBURY, NEB. — Cornmeal birthday cakes with real candles helped mark the first birthday of the Wayne Cornhusker quint, world's only quintuplet beef calves, shown above, which were born a year ago November 20 on the farm of Leo Schmidt near here. Assisting the quint at their birthday party was Mrs. M. G. Houston, of Pleasant, Iowa, and Mrs. Kay Langlas, of Waterloo, Iowa, right. Though less than half the weight of average beef calves at birth, the quint survived all the odds of history, and on their birthday weighed in as follows: England, 552 pounds; Russia, 515 pounds; China, 503 pounds; United States, 571 pounds; and France, the only heifer in the group, 525 pounds.

JUNE CARRIER IS BRIDE OF FRANK KANE

The altar of the First Methodist Church of Farmington was prettily decorated with white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers in crystal candelabra, for the wedding Saturday evening, November 30, at seven o'clock, of June Carrier, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Carrier, and Frank Kane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kane. Rev. A. Stanley Stone read the double ring ceremony in the presence of a large assembly of friends and relatives.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of embroidered white satin, cut with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves, ending in points over her hands. The skirt was cut full and ended in a full length train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls. White rose buds with long satin ribbons, formed her bouquet.

Mrs. Dorothy Coder, cousin of the bride from Louisville, Kentucky, was matron of honor. Her gown was of embroidered yellow tulle with yellow feathers forming her head band. She carried yellow roses and burnt orange mums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Patricia McKeand, Miss Jeanie DeBuck and Miss Wanda Woodcock were gowned alike in aquamarine tulle with matching head bands of feathers. They carried bouquets of yellow mums.

The little flower girl, Carolyn Lee Page, was dressed in pink, and carried a white basket of rose petals.

The ring bearer, Clifford Page, wore a full dress suit, as did other members of the bridal party, and carried the two rings on a white satin pillow.

Frank Coder of Louisville, Kentucky, served as best man. Ushers were Michael Kane, brother of the groom, and Anthony Sinicola and Michael Sinicola.

Harry Smith of Redford sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me". Mrs. Murel Burdick of Redford was the accompanist.

Mrs. Carrier, the bride's mother, chose a gown of royal blue, floor length, trimmed with silver sequins, and a silver sequin hat. She wore a corsage of four green orchids for her daughter's wedding.

Mrs. Kane, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black and white gown with a white feathered hat, and wore a corsage of white baby mums.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Macabre Hall on St. Francis Avenue, where 300 guests were received. Music for dancing was furnished by Bill Conroy's orchestra.

The five-tier wedding cake was decorated with the same ornaments used on the bride's mother's wedding cake.

VIRGINIA CLARK MARRIED HERE AT LAYTON HOME

Miss Elsie Virginia Clark, daughter of Mrs. Helen Clark of Detroit, became the bride of James Strong of Detroit, at a pretty home wedding held Sunday evening at seven o'clock at the home of her brother, Charles W. Layton of Farmington. The house was decorated with flowers and palms for the occasion, and Rev. Clarence Backhurst read the Episcopal service.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, wore a dress of white, with sequin trim, and she carried a nosegay of rosebuds.

Her sister, Mrs. Sheldon House of Detroit, was matron of honor and she wore a blue dress, and carried a bouquet of rosebuds.

Wood Work of Detroit was best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Clark wore a black dress, with blue sequin trim.

Following the ceremony a reception for about 65 friends and relatives was held at the Layton home, next to the Layton home. The bride's table was decorated with a lovely cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Strong are now on a trip to Pennsylvania, and upon their return will be at home to their friends at 15423 Wildemere, Detroit.
