WOMAN'S CLUB MEMBERS PREPARE GIFTS FOR OTHERS

Typical of the Christmas spirit were the 12 Jane Alden dresses brought to the meeting of the Farmington Woman's Club held at the home of Mrs. F. W. Bagnall on Wednesday, December 4. Other gift packages were designed for native friends in Austria.

Miss Winifred Oldenburg, president of the Woman's Club, reported on attending the opening meeting of the Leader Dog League, near Rochester, at which about 2500 persons were present. A detailed report of the meeting of Oakland County Federation of Woman's Clubs, at Lake Orion, Friday, Nov. 1, was given by Mrs. Lavilla Noble. Mrs. Isabelle Purford reported on the meeting of the Redford Child Study Club on the afternoon of December 1, at which members of the Farmington Woman's Club were guests.

Mrs. Mabel Leonard, program chairman of the day, told the story of Arnold Buer of Minneapolis, and his Austrian relatives, for whom the gift packages were intended.

Mrs. Zaida Wilber told the Club members about the old Methodist Church, which stood on the present site of the Bagnall home, and of the fire which destroyed it about 22 years ago. She told also of the origin of some of our Christmas customs, and read a Christmas story entitled "Eleanor Heard the Angels" and two short poems, "Christmas Cards" and "Christmas Everywhere" by Phillips Brooks.

"The next meeting of the Woman's Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Agnes Brown on Wednesday, January 8.

Obituaries

Mrs. Beena Westbrook
Mrs. Beena Westbrook, 78 years of age, passed away on Sunday, December 8. Her home was at 21318 Ontario.

Surviving Mrs. Westbrook are her sons, William Lee Cox of Farmington, Albert and Richard Westbrook of Los Angeles, a daughter, Mrs. Eda Paige of West Palm Beach, Florida, nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. S. Carr of Hollywood and Mrs. Roy Paul of Texas and a brother, John Radigan of Denver, Colorado.

Funeral services were held from the Heener Funeral Home on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock and burial was at Grand Lawn Cemetery.

Audley B. Summerville
Audley B. Summerville of 32875 Nine Mile Road, passed away suddenly last Friday afternoon as the result of a heart attack. Mr. Summerville had been a resident of Farmington Township only three weeks, coming here from Stockbridge, Michigan.

Mr. Summerville was born on April 8, 1888, in Pennsylvania, but he had spent the greater part of his life in Detroit. He had been a machinist and cabinet worker for the past sixty years, retiring from the Detroit Wood Products Company two years ago.

Funeral services were held at the Thayer Funeral Home, 1014 E. River, Sunday, December 9, at two o'clock. Burial took place in North Farmington Cemetery.

Surviving Mr. Summerville are two sons, Edward of South Lyon and William of Detroit.

CIVIC THEATRE TO HAVE PROGRAM FOR PET LOVERS

Would you enjoy taking a trip through Pet-Land? Everyone would, of course, for people just naturally like animals. Perhaps you do not have a pet of your own, but you still enjoy lovable, mischievous antics of animals you know and read about.

Realizing this to be true, the management of the Civic Theatre has arranged a trip through Pet-Land — guaranteed to please everyone from 6 to 60! Six complete subjects, a full one hour screen show, will be appearing at the Civic on Saturday, December 14. When the continuous show begins at 12:30 p.m. There you will see acrobatic monkeys, dancing bears, prancing elephants, singing cats and setting dogs. Such a collection of pets you never before have witnessed! The kids will completely enjoy themselves, so be sure to take them, and have a good time for yourself, too.

White Shrine Plans Christmas Ceremonial

The White Shrine of Jerusalem will have a Christmas Ceremonial on Thursday evening, December 19, at the Lodge Hall in Farmington. Pot luck dinner will be served at 8:00 p.m., with the Ceremonial at 8:00 p.m. and Christmas party to follow.

Each member is asked to bring a gift, not to exceed 25c in cost. Santa Claus will be present, too.

It's a gift! Waterman's NEW Taperites

● lucky you — is he able to give — or own — a new Waterman's Taperite pen! Sleek, slim, trim — these new pens are as modern as tomorrow — yet built to Waterman's standards of quality — famous for 60 years. Prices? Only $8.75 or $13.50 (plus tax).
