IT'S GREATER TO GIVE THAN TO RECEIVE

Twenty three Scouts and eight adults from Girl Scout Troop 11 visited the Evangelical Home in Detroit on Sunday, December 15. This was a great experience for the girls. All of them being blessed with their own homes, this visit gave them a greater urge to do more for less fortunate children of the world.

On Tuesday, December 17, the Troop called at the Sarah Fisher Home on Twelve Mile Road. Donated to each home were dolls, doll clothing and stuffed animals. Troop 11 wishes to thank Mrs. Reid, program coordinator, Grimes Cleaners for the use of their window. The Enterprise, Mac's, Dan- cer's, and also the ladies who sewed and donated materials, for their wonderful cooperation. Perhaps the Scouts will be able to help you with some community service in the near future. The girls also wish to thank their leader, Mrs. Lillie, and assistant leader, Mrs. Zimelman, for their efforts.

to the home of Gladys and Jeanette Rappan for refreshments. Watch Night services are also being planned, to be held from 8:00 p.m. until 12:01 p.m. on New Year's Eve.

First Baptist Church
The choir of the First Baptist Church, under the direction of Mrs. Donald Scharburg, will present a special program of Christmas music at the 7:30 p.m. service on Sunday, December 22. The program will open with Bach's "New Year's Song" and "The Lord's Prayer." Other numbers to be presented are "O Starry Night of Long Ago" by Keating; "He Shall Feed His Flock" by Simpson; and "The Lord's Prayer" from the Messiah; Bossa's "Born is Jesus in Bethlehem"; "The Hills of Bethlehem" by Moore; "Once in Royal David's City" by Simpson; and "The Lord's Prayer" from the Messiah. Incidental solos will be sung by Esther Lewis, John Lewis and Dorothy Wright. Marjorie Sturman, music student of St. Joseph's College, will sing "Jesus Hallelujah" by Yon. Solist for the evening will be Margaret Miles of Lansing, formerly of the local church. Virginia Erickson will point up the program with appropriate readings from the scriptures.

The annual Christmas sermon on the theme "The Bible's Word of Wonder" will be delivered by Rev. Fred E. Fisher at the 10:00 a.m. service. The festive Sunday services will be preceded by the annual Sunday School program Thursday evening, December 19, at 8:00 p.m. Farmington friends are cordially invited to attend the Christmas activities of the church.

Methodist Church
On Sunday, December 22, special Christmas services and programs will be held at the First Methodist Church. At the 11:00 a.m. worship service, special Christmas music will be sung by the choir, and the minister, Rev. A. Stanley Stone, will deliver the sermon, "The Eternal Reign," which will close a series of advent sermons. This service will be marked by baptismal service for children and a reception service for a class of adults who are to unite with the church.

The Christmas cantata entitled, "The Heavenly Child" by Bernard

Hamblen, will be sung by the choir on Sunday evening, December 22, at 8:00 p.m. The cantata will consist of choruses, carols, solos, duets, and quartets. The soloists and those singing in the quartet and duet are soprano, Mrs. June McNeil, Mrs. Leonard Stone; alto, Mrs. Marian Humphrey; tenor, Roy Jones; baritone, A. Stanley Stone; and bass, Maurice Wilcox.

The cantata will be sung under the direction of Clarence W. Jahnke, with Mrs. Marge Burdick at the organ. On Sunday afternoon, December 22, at 3:00 p.m., the Church School will present their Christmas program, entitled "Round the World at Christmas."

There will be singing by the audience and the school, and special features include "A Christmas Treat Near Home" in which the Primary Department tells of its Christmas work for the children of the "Children's Village;" dress and flag of many lands presented by the Nursery and Kindergarten; "How Christmas Came To Be" by the Sixth Grade Pupils; "A Visit from St. Nicholas" by the Senior Girls and a reading by Alice Lancaster. "Round the World at Christmas," a one-act play will be enacted by students representing several departments. Background music and Christmas carols will be sung and Bobby Isley will sing "Rocking Carol."

Department teachers, directing the program include Mrs. Mahlon Bradley, Mrs. E. J. Cooley, Mrs. Ivan Clarke, Mrs. Harold Westfall, Mrs. Robert Mott, Mrs. Howard O. Mott, Mrs. Alfred Jones and Mrs. A. Stanley Stone.

Our Lady of Sorrows

WALLED LAKE GIRL IS BRIDE OF GEORGE BUNDOFF

Miss Esther McClelland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis McClelland of Walled Lake became the bride of George Bundoff of Twelve Mile Road, Farmington, at a double ring ceremony at St. Williams Church, Walled Lake, on November 30.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of broad satin, with full length train of white, and a bouquet of white roses.

Freda McClelland was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore a teal green gown and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Bridesmaids were Rose Bundoff, Farmington and Delphine Malock of Detroit, wearing blue net gowns, and Barbara Block of Detroit and Harriet Horton of Walled Lake wearing pink net dresses. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

Edward Bundoff was his brother's best man and ushers were Joseph Karchitke and Al Malock of Detroit and James Bundoff of Farmington.

Mrs. McClelland chose a green suit with black accessories for her daughter's wedding, while Mrs. Bundoff, mother of the groom, wore a gray and white dress. Both mothers wore gardenia corsages.

A reception for two hundred guests was held at Wilcox Com-
