

CLARENCEVILLE

The yearly Girl Scout Christmas Party on Tuesday, December 17, was as nice as ever with each troop participating. Mrs. Barnes' group, fully costumed, presented a pageant, "Bethlehem Babe," Mrs. Jany's Brownies did "Santa Is Coming To Town" and Mrs. Moore's Brownies recited "Night Before Christmas" and Mrs. Troutman's Intermediates sang "Silent Night" while

The sands of 1946 are fast running out. 1947 will soon be here. With the new year come our sincere wishes to you and your dear ones for health and happiness.

Haskell's and Mrs. Rutilla's troops presented "The Christmas Story". Mr. Bolthe in his beautiful Santa Claus costume distributed the treats after which Mr. Grove's movies of Memorial Day and Day Camp were shown. Committeemen Haskell, Moore and Vandenberg fixed refreshments for the group.

Mrs. Ben Sinclair was honored at the party with a little gift from the leaders and committee people as she and her family will be leaving the community after eight years, during which time she served well and faithfully. Mrs. Sinclair was a charter member of the Parents Club and when a group from that club organized Girl Scouting, she took over a troop of Brownies for many years, also serving on the Executive Committee, and the Leaders Group, an secretary, taking care of the many complicated duties in those offices. For the past year she has been our representative at Birmingham. Mrs. Sinclair also served during the war as Captain of Red Cross Canteen, at Romulus. She has also been interested in Extension Service, forming and organizing groups hereabouts. When Cub Pack 444 was organized she took over its secretarial duties. She also has been active in the Lutheran Church on Eight Mile. Mr. Sinclair has been one of our outstanding business men since before the war, helping and assisting in every way possible. The Sinclairs, and their son Michael, will be greatly missed in this community. We all wish them good luck wherever they may go.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Iatonna and little son have taken up residence in their new home on Ontario. The William Stollers of Rensselaer are receiving congratulations on the birth of a little daughter. Family gatherings on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day were very much in evidence up and down the streets of our town, and our citizens have taken great pains to deck out their houses, inside and out. This family's window candles served a few nights. A little four year old nephew saw to that, and we are unable to find more.

Harry Stollers and Ruth Peters are on vacation from Michigan State college for the holidays.

Mr. Clyde Linemeyer is confined to his home with blood poisoning in his hand.

The seasons greetings and best wishes to our shut-ins.

Investiture Held
By Scout Troop 35

On Monday evening, December 23, eight boys, Beward Thompson, Frank Hough, John Brown, Allan McFarland, Frank Maykovich, Donald Westlake, David Hallock and James Fantini, in the presence of their parents and members of Troop 35, were invested into the great brotherhood of Scouting.

A "Four Square" ceremony was used, after which the boys, on their honor, gave the oath to live up to the Boy Scout Laws.
