About Farmington's busine places you will find the airtactive little candsters just waiting : receive your nickels, dimes and quarters — or the folding variety currency — and this money will be used to help stamp out infant parulysis, one of the most dreaded of diseases. There is no pit less where your money will do as much to build a stronger, happ America phan it will right here. Give to the Sister Kenny Fund, a do it tolay.

STOCKHOLDERS . JCKHOLDERS ... The Farmington State Bank will meet next Tuesday afternoon, uary 14, in the Directors' room of the bank, at three o'clock in the rnoom for their annual meeting. There will be a roport of the rations of the bank for the year just passed and directors will be for the ensuing year.

This is really a wonderful time to asay pourself some mores, and tock up on things you may be wanting and need. Take a little time, this week and browse around town and see for yourself.

THE BOYS. seem to have it this time! Farmington's population has been in-creased the last couple of weeks by quite a number of very young folks — and for the most part thry seem to be bounding baby loys. Those versed in the supersitions would have a creason for it. I'm sure, but we don't have — it is merely coincidence as (ar as we are coi-cerned. Anyway, our congratuisions to all the proud, beaming fathers, and the happy mothers.

CUPID, TOO... seems to have had a very busy holiday season, judging from the numerous reports of, engagements and weddings. Little, Dan seems to have a way of becoming very active around Christmas and the New Year — perhaps he, too, believes in starting off the New Year New Year — with a bang!

NOTHER CHANGE

ANOTHER CHANGE ... in Farmingtons business district is scheduled for next week for the Twins Beauty Shop is moving from their present location, just west of the Smith-Bradley Drug Store, to 33408 Strand River, formerly the location of Pauline's Market. The redecorating and remodeling has been about completed, and the Twins sepsect to be in next week on Wednesday. Meanwhile they are having a clearance sale on allocer mutching and get any of those things she might need.

THE FALCONS ... are going great guing and this year, judging from the success they have exloyed so far this basketball season. You'd better make i a point to get over to the gymnasign this Friday night, when the loca diag meet Walled Lake — you'll have a swell time, and who doesn' get a kick out of a good high school basketball game?

THE WOMEN... will endoy the "Meet The Missus" program which will be held in Farmington Town Hall on Tuesday afternoon, January 21. Desser uncheon will be served at one o'clock, to be followed by one of Russ Mubbolland's famous programs, with all it's fun and famfare. Tickets are now on sale — or you may reserve yours by calling Mrs. Glis You can't get in without a ticket, though, so better get yours early.
