MISS HAZEL STOWE TO TRAIN FOR MISSIONARY WORK

Miss Hazel Stowe who lived in the community of West Point Park for a number of years, and who is a member of West Point Bible Church, located on Seven Mile Road near Farmington Road, was beautifully presented at the altar in a special service at her church last Sunday.

Miss Stowe successfully passed requirements of the Board of Education, which permits her to enter into collegiate training for Seminary work in the preparation of becoming a missionary. The staid college work next week, and her work in the community wishes her well.

For the special service, the altar was banked with palms and pasted flowers. The kneeling bench was draped with rust colored silks, with kneeling cushions of the same material. The service was held by candlelight.

Standard bearers representing each department of the church included Ronald Butler of the Young People, Mrs. Arthur Resenberger of the Aigles, the Bible bearer who preceded Miss Stowe was Kenneth Navarre, of the Sunday School and Mrs. Stowe walked down the aisle with her daughter in presentation. Mrs. Hall played the piano and the intermediate choir rendered the music.

Miss Lois Selfridge of Detroit, part time missionary, sang the dedicatory solo. Rev. J. H. Sandcock, pastor, officiated.

Miss Stowe answered all doctrinal questions placed to her very clearly. She took her oath of future office quite beautifully and understandingly. The candidate was dressed in a becoming pink pastel dress, and wore a lovely corsage which was presented to her by Mrs. Kacy of the West Point Green House. She made a beautiful picture as she walked down the aisle after the ceremony, with her lighted candle.

Everyone from the community as well as her personal friends, wish her the best of luck and God speed.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of Edward Grimmer Who passed away one year ago, January 10, 1946. Sadly missed by wife, Sisters and Brother, and Nephews and Nieces.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of Albert Koss, Who passed away one year ago, January 12, 1946. There is no final parting - For all are in his care. And those who seem to leave us, Are waiting for us there Where we shall meet our loved ones.

And understand at last That dawn is always waiting After the night is past. His wife and daughters. 13-1p

The regular meeting and installation of officers for the Blue Star Mothers will be held on Thursday, January 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the Farmington Town Hall.

Little Billy

Mr. Fred Staman of Farmington has returned home after spending a couple of weeks here with her son, Fraser, and family. Mrs. Rowena Salow accompanied her father, Mack Blum, and Mrs. Della Moore of Twelve Mile Road on a trip to St. Augustine, Florida, and witnessed the marriage of these two people in a Baptist parsonage by a Baptist minister, their way down, at Folkston, Georgia. She continued on the trip with them, returning by plane, and arriving in Detroit on New Year's Eve.

Mr. A. McCullum is confined to her bed where she will have to remain for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waite are receiving congratulations on the arrival of their first grandchild, a son, born New Year's at Detroit, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waite, Jr.

The W.S.C.S. will meet at the church on Wednesday, January 15, for pot luck dinner at noon. Mr. and Mrs. DeVore Mittels will enter New Year's at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reed, more and three sons of Caro, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellwell and two children of Northville and Miss Jeanette Whitman of Iron Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Gleg Shirliff and two daughters, Lisa and Maxine, visited at the home of the former's brother, Fred, and family, at near Dexter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hines entertained sixteen guests at a turkey dinner on New Year's Eve. They were from Detroit, Plymouth and Novi. The evening was spent playing cards, with prizes given, and a return to the table at three o'clock, to finish up the turkey.

The Rebekahs held installation of officers on Saturday evening at the hall, jointly with the Oddfellows. Doris Darling was installed as Noble Grand, Francis Curtis as Vice Grand, Thelma Cheesman as Recording Secretary, Rowena Salow as Financial Secretary, Della Walters as Treasurer, Irene Wendland as Chaplain, and George Davis as Degree Captain. The Oddfellows installed E. C. Copeman as Noble Grand, William Craze as Vice Grand, Jim Frisbe as Recording Secretary, Fred Brooks as Financial Secretary, Frank Clark as Treasurer and Jim Radcliffe as Chaplain. After the installation the drill team of the Rebekahs put on their drill which was enjoyed by all. They entered the hall with the words "Welcome to Our Lodge 482," after which they went on with their drill. After the exchange of gifts they retired to the dining room where a pot luck supper was served under the direction of Sister Helen Olivich and her daughter, Patsy, assisted by several of the sisters. A lovely time was reported by all.

The January meeting of the Board of Commerce directors was held on Monday evening at the home of Fran Jennings. Officers elected at this time were Ray L. Pond, James Mitchell and George Hines, the three new members of the Board of Directors; Kenneth Cook, president; Fran Jennings, vice president; Fred White, secretary and Robert Davis, treasurer. After the election a lovely lunch was served and they departed, planning to have their next Board of Commerce at Emory's Homestead at Walled Lake on the first Thursday of February.

The community was greatly shocked by the news of the sudden passing of Frank Rosebery, while going to his chores on Sunday morning. The funeral was on Wednesday at Heene's Funeral Home, with burial at Clarenceville.

Mrs. Irene Kahari entertained her 90 Club at her home on Novi Road on Monday evening. By the looks and reports her ladies turned out to be men, but then we all know the women "wear the pants" nowadays. After a delicious lunch was served and all departed at a late hour, reporting her an ideal hostess. This party honored Mrs. Irene Staman on her birthday, and she received many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lohmeis and Mrs. Fred Staman entertained at a family dinner on Sunday, honoring the latter's sister, Mrs. Mildred Horsfall, on her birthday.

Mrs. Margaret West Dawson of Ypsilanti called on relatives and friends here on Saturday when she attended the burial of Miss Whipple.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Going of Pontiac attended the burial of Miss Whipple and called on friends here.

Mrs. Caroline Quinan and children were dinner guests of her cousin, Mrs. Doris Darling, on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller entertained at a New Year's Eve party at their home. All report lots of fun, and lots to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. George Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Staman and Mr. and Mrs. Eural Clark of Northville were entertained on New Year's Eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Himmelpach of Joe Mar Hills.

Mrs. Reuben Ward left on Wednesday for Arkansas where she has been called by the serious illness of her sister.

Girl Scouts Sing Carols for Home Inmates

Brownlee Troop 9 and Girl Scouts of Troops 5 and 10, all of Our Lady of Sorrows School, formed a group of carol singers, about 55 in number. On Sunday, December 22, the girls visited Mrs. Carmel Hospital, Little Sisters of the Poor and the Sarah Fisher Children's Home, where they sang carols for the entertainment of those at the hospital.

Upon returning to Farmington a party was held at the school hall, with about 200 present, including parents and friends of the children. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Wade Dickerson led the carolers, assisted by other leaders and troop committee members.
