we see it, the Governor's move was, a smart strategic one to get the proponents of the amendment to recommend new taxes — a position which he has carefully avoided so far — or to agree to a compromise solution whereby the legislature would "guarantee" adequate infancial support

In fact, to balance the budget by this means, we would have to abolish all oldage and wolfare as-sistance, close all the mental hos-pitals, close all our prisons, and close all our colleges. Such a solu-tion, we all agree, would be so fan-tastic as to be ridiculous.

EDITORIAL

Because the smoking situation has become steadily worse since the beginning of the school year, it has been necessary for M. Harrison and Mr. Dunckel to issue a new bulletin on smoking. This states that all Farmington High School students, with the exception of veterans, who are found smoking on the school grounds will be expelled from the school. will be expelled from the school.

It leaves an all-round bad impression to see high school students smoking in or about the school. Why not cooperate with our administrators and faculty and avoid smoking on school property?
