

'Broadway' Opens Friday

TWO WHO CAN'T POSSIBLY miss as stars of the ice show are Amy Hillman and Kim Paterson. "Omp-Pah-Pah." They're good candidates for the Winter Olympics some day.

Five figure skating instructors (with Livonia's parks and recreation department) will be on the ice almost 12 hours a day all this week as they go into final rehearsals for the show "Broadway on Ice."
The show will be presented Friday, Saturday and Sunday (April 7, 8 and 9) in the Ford Ice Rink, 3241 Lyndon, Livonia. Tickets are on sale now at the rink as well as at the parks and recreation department offices. They are $1.25 for adults and 50 cents for anyone under 18.

Beverly Swan, Sondra Morrill, Audrey Battenfield and Dawn Lyle chose the theme "Broadway on Ice" early last summer.
MUSIC FROM almost every Broadway musical ever known will be featured, beginning of course with "Another Opening, Another Show," and concluding with "No Business Like Show Business." There will be 22 members in all, Merrill Buleman will be the announcer.

There will be solos by Fred Hart and Pat Kerwin, Diane (De De) Daniels, Sandy Debbie and Pam Griffin, Julie Jones, Sherry Johnson and Marie Mazur.
Most of the costumes for the show were ordered from a costume company, but Mrs. Pat Kent sewed the Swiss outfits needed for the "Gothard" number from "The Sound of Music."

Bill Revell is in charge of lighting, with the help of Jerry Mazur, Larry Smith, John Strauch and Larry Zlich.
The scenery designers and painters are Carol Dufour, Rick Dufour and George Camillari. Props are being arranged by Bob Gamache, Larry Smith and Jim Paterson; sound, by Charles Thauvett Jr.; staging, Robert Stokes; and the zambone (ice-making machine) operators, James Laude, Nelson Queller, Joe Rose and Paul Sawyer.

Many fathers have been helping put the show together, and the mothers will be assisting in the dressing rooms throughout the performances.

Severo Ballet Plans April 9 Performance

The Detroit Severo Ballet Company will make its 27th appearance with members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 3:30 p.m., Sunday, April 9.

The company will appear in Ford Auditorium in the last of this season's Kresge concerts. The program will consist of a trio of ballets, including the Detroit premiere of George Balanchine's "Serenade," with music by Tchaikovsky, "Pas de Quatre" by Pugnani and "Huangpango," choreographed by Enrique Martinez and composed by Pablo Moncayo. Interested persons should call "Tickets at $1.50, $2 and $2.50 are available at the auditorium box office, Hudson's and Grinnell's."

OCC To Stage 'Odd Couple'

Neil Simon's comedy, "The Odd Couple," will be presented in J-180 of the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College April 6-8 and 13-15. The company is located in Farmington at 27055 Orchard Lake Road.
Admission is free for OCC students; $1 for general public; and 50 cents for students with ID cards from other schools.
Upon completion of the run of "The Odd Couple" at OCC, the production will be available to tour local schools. Interested persons should call the theater department.

STEVE SCHWARTZ of Southfield will play Oscar

Madison, and Bob Conaway o Troy has been cast as Felix Unger.
Other roles are being taken by Michael Sochaeki of Southfield; Tom Motovsek and Jeff Spain of Farmington; Mark Segal of Detroit; and Lynn Tobel and Carolyn Hoffman of Novi.
As a two-year college, OCC is establishing an unusual theater department which provides training in acting, scenic design, lighting, costumes, make-up and directing.

15 Students Receive Awards

Fifteen music students have received scholarships ranging from $10 to $50 from the Farmington Musicale, a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs.
Winners in the 1972 competition, held in Harrison High School are:
Strings, Carolyn Mekjian, first; Mary Colburn, second; and Dirk Bondi, third;
Piano, Kristy Nielsen, first; Jill Turgeon, second; and Tom Doot, third; Winds, Ann Osterdale, first; Perry Sussak, second; and Lee Friedrich, third;
Brass, Debbie Tomchak, first; Tom McKelvey, second; and Robert Gaines, third;
Voice, Dave Anderson, first; Denise Shenkel, second; and Brenda Sayles, third.
All are from Farmington, except Miss Trudgeon who is from Livonia.
The awards were $50 for first place, $35 for second, and $10 for third. First place winners will perform at the May 7 national music week concert sponsored by the club.

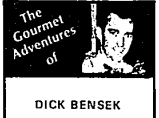

THE STUDENT Theater Guild and the theater courses also provide theatrical opportunities for local community talent under the guidance of the college staff. The department is presently holding open auditions for three one-acts to be presented in May.
The guild operates in a studio theater in the Commons Building. The studio allows shows to be staged in the round, three-quarter round or proscenium style.

Robinson Play Is A Winner

Michael Robinson of Farmington has been awarded second place in a play-writing contest sponsored by the University Theater at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo.
Robinson, a senior, received his award for "The Ritual Room," a play about a rite of violence which brings about a rebirth of innocence and love between a young man and his wife.
The play will be performed at the university next fall along with two other award winners, "The Prometheus Riddle," by Steve Pekich, a graduate student from Grand Haven, and "Recess," by James Tracey, a sophomore from Port Huron.
Three members of the university theater staff were judges of the 21 scripts entered in the contest.

Tate To Give U-M Lecture

ANN ARBOR
Poet Allen Tate will give the annual Haywood lecture at 8 p.m., Wednesday, April 5, in Rackham Lecture Hall, University of Michigan.
Creative writing awards in drama, essay, poetry and fiction in the Haywood competition will also be announced.

The Scottish cuisine of the 18th century was cosmopolitan with the French influence predominant, thanks to Mary, Queen of Scots, who brought with her the French chef to oversee the special dining of the royal family. A tale is told about the famous Dr. Samuel Johnson and his literary shadow, James Boswell. The pair made a tour of Scotland with Boswell busily recording all the while the delicious things Sam Johnson had to eat. When they supped on Scots Broth for the first time, Dr. Johnson was so delighted that Boswell asked him: "You never ate it before?" To which the sage Johnson replied: "No, sir, but I don't care how soon I eat it again."
The cuisine at DANISH INN, 3205 Grand River Ave., 476-6320 features a number of Danish dishes as well as American. Specialty of the house is Fried Chicken and we also serve Dansk Hakke Bol, Bill Lindstrom and Danish Lobster Tails. We honor almost all credit cards.
Enjoy piano music by the famous Pat Flowers. He plays boogie, jazz and classical music from 8:30 p.m. to closing Tues. thru Sat.

HELPFUL HINT: Sit your flour from the flour sack right into your flour canister. Then when you bake, just measure.
