

Grand OPENING

February 13

MOSS' MEAT & GROCERY

32599 GRAND RIVER CUT-OFF
Corner Nine Mile RoadTO THE VOTERS OF FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP

At the Primary Election which will be held February 17, 1947, you will choose the officers to manage the affairs of the Township for the next two years.

The present Township Board has placed the Township in its best financial condition in its history.

The Township has a $35,000 cash reserve on hand.

The Township has no bonded indebtedness. Water Bonds are self-liquidating and no obligation to the Township.

The Township taxes have not been raised.

The Township Board has a Zoning Ordinance practically ready to submit to the people for approval.

Architectural plans for a Township-City library have been drawn and will be submitted to the people for approval at an early date.

Do you, as voters and taxpayers, wish to exchange this conservative stewardship of your affairs for the uncertainty of inexperienced management?

Weigh these facts carefully and let your vote decide the issue at the

FEBRUARY 17th PRIMARY ELECTION

MARJORIE COLLINS
IS MARRIED TO ALPENA MAN

Mrs. Marjorie Louise Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Collins of Alpena, Michigan, became the bride of John David Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Kelly of 329 Milwaukee Street, Alpena, on Friday, February 7. The wedding was performed by Rev. Arthur E. Wolf, in the parsonage of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Kalamazoo. Attending the young couple were Carl M. Schiller of Chicago, Illinois, and Marilyn M. Maurer. John is attending Western College in Kalamazoo, and they plan to make their home there while he is in school.

Before moving to Alpena where they make their home at 310 W. Lewis Avenue, the Collins family had lived in Farmington on Shaw Street for 12 years.

SUNDAY SERVICES TO BE HELD AT

WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-M

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Borland and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Borland, all from Detroit, were calling on West Point Park relatives Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Clarke Bonar and daughter from Milford were recently visiting with old neighbors in West Point Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Carter were recent visitors with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Torony, in Lincoln Park.

Mrs. Arthur Block and her niece, Miss Joanne McVicar, were visitors in Plymouth last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault were in Wayne last Tuesday calling upon Mrs. Edward Stromski, who is convalescing from a major operation.

Mrs. Jack Omsa and daughter Ruth Ann from Toledo, are spending a week with relatives in West Point Park.

The Clyde Buckinghams were among the attendants at the Shrine Circus in Detroit, Sunday.

In honor of their twentieth wedding anniversary, the Norman Kauranas entertained a group of Detroit friends Sunday afternoon.

Little Miss Joanne Willet, of Mayfield Avenue, has been on the sick list for a week.

William Sherman, Mayfield Avenue, has been ill the last few days.

Mrs. Ed. Stauch, of Hubbard Avenue, is recovering from a siege of ear trouble.

Norman Kauranas is reported suffering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Relatives from Detroit arranged a small dinner party last Wednesday celebrating the birthday of Mrs. C. W. Doherty, on Shadygide.

Herbert Schult, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult, Shadygide Avenue, has enlisted and been accepted for service in the U. S. Army. He left the first of last week for Camp Bragg, in the South.

Relatives of Louis Carter, who is with the U. S. Navy, have received word that he is about to take part in a cruise to Trinidad.

Mrs. Margaret Martin, Hubbard Avenue, was attacked by a cat Friday night when she attempted to put it out of the house into the cold and received various bites and scratches, which a physician has treated. The cat is to be disposed of, but it is now believed Mrs. Martin will suffer no really serious consequences.

The Misses Anne and Marion Johnson, of Gladwin Avenue, spent the week-end with relatives in the Folker Sub.

In honor of her 15th birthday, about twenty young folks gathered at the home of Miss Marietta Schult, on Shadygide Avenue, Saturday evening and indulged in a real celebration. Various stunts and games were pastimes. Delicious birthday cake, with accompaniments, was served at the close. Miss Marietta received numerous pretty gifts and congratulatory cards.

Mrs. Kenneth Owen, Farmington Road, was in attendance Wednesday and Thursday of last week at the North American Beauty and Fashion Show held at the Book Cadillac Hotel in Detroit. She was accompanied by Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson. On Thursday Mrs. William Owens was also in attendance. These ladies report a very interesting experience.

Howard Middlewood, of Farmington Road, sponsored a tobogganing party Sunday afternoon on what has become known as "Suicide Hill" near Farmington. A considerable group of West Point Park youngsters took part. Mr. Middlewood has been doing something like this almost every week-end during the winter weather. A week ago he escorted his group to Cass Benton.

A group of about 150 persons were in attendance at the Taxpayers' Meeting held at Livonia Center School Sunday afternoon. The purpose was to reconsider the "Tax Amendment No. 2" recently voted upon. This meeting is believed to have made history.

Goldfish Greenish-Brown Goldfish are not gold in the wild state, their coloration generally being greenish-brown. By careful breeding, colorful goldfish have been produced, but when they resume life under natural conditions they revert to their original greenish-brown color. In some localities the "Tax Amendment No. 2" re-greenish-brown occur in such abundance that they are marketed as a food fish.

and some interesting results are likely to develop.

The Prayer-Bible Study Group of the Neighborhood Church had a social hour following their meeting last Thursday night and during the course of it served a birthday cake, honoring several friends in the neighborhood having birthdays during the week.

Because of inclement weather, Rev. Gordon Cameron could not keep his appointment with the Neighborhood Church Sunday night but expects nothing to hinder him next week.

Mrs. Carrie Rowe and her granddaughter, from Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. John Golwacki and their two children, from Brighton, were all Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault, on Irving Avenue.

"The Boys' and Girls' Bible-study group of the Neighborhood Church will hold their annual Valentine exchange Wednesday evening, February 12th. The affair is at 7 p.m. All children of the community are invited to attend. Each should bring a valentine to be exchanged, grab-bag fashion.

The Neighborhood Church, working unconditionally, is located near the corner of Mayfield and Norfolk. Bible School is at 11 a.m. Sundays and evenings at 7. Next Sunday evening, Rev. Gordon Cameron is expected to speak on an interesting theme.

State Fruit Society
To Meet February 21

Fruit prevention, new spray materials, blossom thinning by spraying and other subjects of interest to Oakland County Fruit Growers are to be discussed by fruit authorities from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Friday, February 21, in the Court House Annex, Pontiac, according to Karl D. Bailey, County Agricultural Agent.

All fruit growers are encouraged to attend.
