ASKS AID FOR GREECE AND TURKEY

WASHINGTON, D. C. — SOUNDPHOTO — President Harry S. Truman last week addressed a joint session of Congress in a momentous personal appeal asked for $400,000,000 and American military advisors to Greece and Turkey — Mediterranean bulwarks against spreading communism. Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (R) Mich., President pro-temp of the Senate is shown in back at left, Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., (R) Mass., is at back right.

WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM, 1461-M

Thursday of last week, Mrs. Thomas, formerly of Seven Mile Road, entertained Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. McLean at luncheon in the home of Mrs. Georgina, in Redford.

Mr. and Mrs. Brunetti, the former Margaret Mills, and their baby daughter have been spending a week with relatives and friends in Detroit and Redford.

Mr. T. J. Slevin, of Uniontown, Ohio, has spent the last week visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. John Newman, of Massillon, Ohio, was the guest Saturday night and Sunday of her nephew, Russell Ault and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange visited friends on the East Side, Detroit, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bosley, from Akron, were visiting with their aunt, Mrs. J. W. Ault Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keyser, from Huntington Woods, were visiting relatives in this community Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault, left Sunday morning for a week's vacation trip to the Carolinas.

Mrs. Norman Kauranen is reported quite ill. Her son, Donald, is also on the sick list.

Pamela, Gary and Terry, three small children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jay Siteland, are reported somewhat improved, after having all been quite ill with bronchial pneumonia.

Because of a teachers' meeting, boys and girls of our school district will enjoy a full holiday Friday.

Mrs. Charles Armstrong and her sister, Miss Maude Gallagher, visited in Detroit Wednesday and attended a Ross Mulholland breakfast with them.

Miss Joanne Craig, who has been suffering with a broken leg for three weeks, is well enough on the mend to return to school this week.

The rumor is that the Gift Shop, on Seven Mile Road, near Farmington Road, is being discontinued and an up-to-date bakery being established in the same location.

Mrs. Albert Owen was hostess to her card club ladies Thursday evening. All participating greatly enjoyed the happy get-together.

At the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, Mrs. Emerson Ault was honor guest at a family dinner celebrating her birthday Wednesday evening of last week. The group presented Mrs. Ault with a cake pie.

ers, Dolores and Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault and daughters, Phyllis and Helen Ruth, Miss Freda Ault and Miss Ruth Ann Omen. A number of relatives and friends from Farmington were also among those present. Delbert Bosley, the groom, who comes from Akron, is a relative of the Aults in West Point Park and has visited in this neighborhood. Featuring the lovely candlelight supper were solos by sixteen-year-old David Bosley, brother of the groom, and who has been a house guest with West Point Park relatives. His renderings were "I Love You Truly," "Because," and at the close "Our Love Prayer," which was particularly impressive.

Rev. Kauranen, from northern Michigan, spoke to the Boys' and Girls' Group in the Neighborhood Church Wednesday night of last week. His talk was a simple, sincere speech that greatly impressed the youngsters.

Mrs. Walter Dixon and Mrs. Koon, from the Gaylord Baptist Church district, visited the Prayer-Hike Study group of the Neighborhood Church last Thursday night and assisted in the discussion.

Mr. Anderson, a Sunday School missionary from the mid-west, but who happens just now to be visiting relatives in Detroit, gave an illustrated address to the Neighborhood Bible School Sunday morning. His sister, Miss Anderson, a secretary from the Elm Baptist Church, Detroit, accompanied him and also spoke briefly. The presence of these visitors was greatly enjoyed by the young people.

A group of Christian young folks from Detroit are planning to visit the Neighborhood Church on Thursday evening, March 27th, and conduct a Hymn-Sing and gospel service. Young and old are invited to attend.

V. F. W. AUXILIARY SPONSORS ANNUAL ESSAY CONTEST

Arrangements for judging and awarding prizes in the Essay Contest, sponsored locally by the V. F. W. Ladies Auxiliary of Farmington Post 403, have now been completed, under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Fairley, Americanism and Essay chairman of the Farmington post.

All essays must be in for local judging no later than April 1. The local prizes are $5.00 first prize; $3.00 second and $2.00 third prize. State prizes are $50.00, first; $30.00, second and $20.00, third. The grand prize, for the essay judged best nationally is $1,000, which gives all entrants something really worthwhile at which to aim. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Fairley at Southfield 4271.

Hospital Garb
Cotton is mandatory clothing for hospital operating room wear because, unlike some other fibers it does not generate static electricity, which can easily cause ether and other anesthetics to burst into flame, endangering lives of patients.

Diet for Old People

Older persons should reduce the calorie intake, go light on fats, sweets and starches. The need for vitamins and minerals remains about the same in old age, so meals should contain liberal amounts of milk, fruit and vegetables.
