Mrs. Ray Eichler is going to sing Sunday morning at Salem Evangelical Church. She has selected the piece, "Open The Gates Of The Temple" by Knapp.

Charles E. Larson, a student at Michigan State College, spent the Easter holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Larson.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Louise White at Hillsdale College, on March 17. She would have been 94 years old on June 1. Many of the older residents will remember Mrs. White and her husband, Frank White, who operated a grocery store here for many years. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Nina Goers of San Francisco, two granddaughters and three great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nichols and daughters, Stephanie and Martha, of Port Huron, on their way

Private Ronald W. Keating, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keating of 2314 Lakeway Drive, is now serving with the 192d Infantry Regiment, a unit of the 24th Infantry Division in Japan. The 24th, known also as the "Victory" Division, is now occupying the entire island of Kyushu, southernmost and third largest of the Japanese home group.

Pvt. Keating entered the Army on September 3, 1946 at Dearborn, and prior to overseas shipment from Camp Stoneman, California, received basic training at Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Upon his arrival in the 24th Division area, Keating found many improvement projects under construction. In an effort to make life overseas equal to that of a soldier stationed in the United States, the "Victory" Division has furnished men with modern living quarters and the best recreational and amusement facilities available.

Keating is a graduate of Royal Oak High School.
