Will Show Colored Pacific Films

EDWARD WILSON

DENNIS COOPER

An all-color film of natives, scenery and some of the most exciting military and rescue operations of the southwest Pacific theatre will be shown on Friday evening, April 17, at 8:00 p.m., at the Clareville Methodist Church. This entertainment is being presented under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the Clareville Methodist Church.

Dennis Cooper, science department head in the Detroit Public Schools and a former Army major will show the film, assisted by Edward Wilson, former Army Lieutenant. The two men were together in the States, and in the Philippine Islands, the scene of many of the pictures that will be shown. As Group Intelligence officer for one of the frontier outfits in New Guinea, and later as chief rescue intelligence officer of the Fifth Air Force, Cooper had opportunities to explore and photograph many strange and beautiful scenes in the South Seas.

Last summer Cooper and Wilson made pictures of Isle Royale for an illustrated travel picture.

The women of the Ladies Aid extend a most cordial invitation to everyone to see this interesting film at the Clareville Methodist Church on Friday evening.

the setting the Canadian wilderness of millions of square miles. The level of sheer entertainment is extraordinarily high. Here is an acceptance of the harness, the charm, the essential goodness of that life, that rings very true, and the dual authorship of the book gives both the male and female characters an added authenticity. It doesn't prove any great question to the reader, or offer solutions of life. But there is a real tenderness and romance about Mike and Kathy that are rare and precious things.

The library is open Monday and Friday, 9:00 to 9:00 p.m., and on Wednesday and Saturday, 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 to 9:00 p.m. Residents of the City and Township are welcome to use its facilities at any time.

Obituaries

Mr. Edward M. Hillebrich, of 1820 Foch Avenue, Farmington, died at Redford Receiving Hospital on April 17, 1947, following an accident in which he was struck by an automobile while crossing the street at Seven Mile and Grand River Avenues about two weeks ago. Mr. Hillebrich was born August 12, 1883, in Louisville, Kentucky. With his wife, he formerly made his home in West Point Park. He is survived by his wife, Lavinia, and one son, Edward J., of Eight Mile Road, Farmington.

Funeral services were held from the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon, April 16, at two o'clock, with burial at Clareville Cemetery. Rev. A. Stanley Stone officiated at the services.

April 11, 1947

Sarasota, Florida
The Farmington Enterprise,
Farmington, Michigan

Gentlemen:

I received in my mail yesterday formal certification by the City Clerk that at the election held April 7, 1947, I had been duly elected to the office of Justice of the Peace for the full term.

Owing to what has seemed to me at least a very long forced absence from my home, I felt rather reluctant to permit the submission of my name to the electorate for re-election. I consider it an honor and take great pride in having been chosen for the office by a majority of the citizens of Farmington, particularly when opposed by such a worthy, well qualified man as my good friend and fellow practitioner, Howard Richards.

It is very clear to me that I owe my election not only to the many friends that voted for me, but also to the earnest effort of many who gave so very generously of their time and effort in forwarding my candidacy.

May I take this occasion, through your column, to express my thanks and deep appreciation not only for the honor accorded me, but also for the confidence and friendship
