To The Monitors:

At the weekly Student Council meeting, the topic of monitors was rediscussed. It was reported that monitors have lately started taking advantages of privileges given to them. Many have left their posts to saunter around the halls or have to saunter around the halls or have neglected their duties by carrying on conversations with friends. It was deedded that monitors unwilling to observe the regulations of the Coancil woid be asked to resign. Then, more responsible persons would be appointed for replacements. P.W.
