RECENT BRIDE

MRS. STANLEY A. SMITH

At a candlelight ceremony in the First Baptist Church, Farmington, Betty Jean Moore became the bride of Stanley A. Smith on Saturday, April 26. Betty Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brugman, 22027 Miller Road, and Stanley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley S. Smith of Northville. Rev. Fred B. Fisher officiated at the eight o'clock service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white satin, fashioned with a lace pelum and full net skirt with train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a seed pearl crown. Her flowers were white roses and snapdragons.

Nancy Lee Moore, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue taffeta gown and carried American Beauty roses. The bridesmaids, Shirley Monroe, another sister of the bride, and Mrs. Charles Barry, sister of the bride-groom, wore gowns of yellow and pink taffeta, and carried Tallman and white pink roses.

Virginia Brugman, the bride's youngest sister, was flower girl. She wore a blue dress and carried an old fashioned nosegay.

Charles Barry, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, was best man. Ronald Anderson and Arthur Brettmeyer were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brugman chose navy blue and pink. Both had corsages of white carnations and red roses.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors.

The young couple left on a week's honeymoon to northern Michigan, and upon their return they took up residence in their home on Farmington Road.

CHINESE ARMY OFFICER IS GUEST AT SEARLE HOME

Major General J. L. Huang, a distinguished staff member, attached to the military contingent of Generalissimo Chiang Katschek of China, called on his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Searle, of Locust Drive, last Saturday.

The Major General is in this country as a guest of the United States Government to study American Army methods. He has been a staff member for nineteen years, and is Director General of Officers Moral Endeavor Association of Nanking, China.

As a young man Major General Huang was a student at the Ford Trade School for many years under the direction of Mr. Searle, whom he regards with much respect and gratitude for the valuable training he received as a young man in a strange country.

Obituaries

Mrs. Sarah Melville
Mrs. Sarah Melville of 20099 Milburn Avenue, Livonia Township, passed away early Sunday morning, following a two weeks' illness.

Mrs. Melville was born May 24, 1888, in Motherwell, Scotland, the daughter of Henry and Joan Sutherland Cairney. She came to this country in 1910, and on March 23, 1911, was united in marriage to William Melville. Mr. and Mrs. Melville have lived in this vicinity for the past nine years, coming here from Detroit. She was a member of the Farmington Gospel Assembly, and the Farmington Women's Christian Temperance Union. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock from the Thayer Funeral Home, with Rev. Orville Windell of the Farmington Gospel Assembly officiating. Burial took place in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens.

Surviving besides her husband are one daughter, Mrs. Vincent Zollosky of Farmington, and a son, John of Detroit; also six brothers, James and David of Detroit, Thomas of Ontario, John of Pennsylvania, George of Scotland and Henry of England. She also leaves eight grandchildren.

Rex Young, of Detroit and guest, was a Saturday evening guest of the High McIntyres.

Rev. Fred Fisher was guest speaker on the program of the Exchange Club Wednesday noon. His talk, entitled "Suffering", was based on his experiences in the field of Theology and Religion, and he interestingly related personal experiences. His interpretation of his subject was most informative.

Ed Hohler will have charge of the program to be presented next Wednesday noon, and he promises it will be a program no Exchangeite will want to miss.

Farlington Kiwanians had a business meeting in place of their usual program last Wednesday evening.

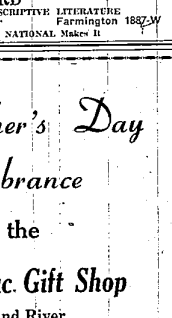

Charles Layton was taken into membership in the club.

Jim Tagg showed the Samuetson Trophy, recently awarded to the Boy Scouts of Troop 45, which is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and explained what the award means. The club may well be proud of the work these boys and their leaders are doing.

This week Kiwanians and their wives will hold a dinner meeting at the Trenton Channel Plant of the Detroit Edison Company, and next week they will be back at Black's White House, their regular meeting place.

Miss Judith Thornton of Northville spent Sunday with Harry and Susan Thornton on Farmington Rd.
