CLARENCEVILLE NEWSBy MRS. AXEL RUTILA
TELEPHONE FARM. 1124-M

The 26th Annual Wayne County Home Demonstration Achievement Day held in First Methodist Church at Wayne was attended by members Mrs. Cutright, Mrs. Garchow, Mrs. Sharon, Mrs. McGlocklin, Mrs. Marx, Mrs. Lachin, Mrs. Mortimer, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Folker and Mrs. Axel Rutila. The morning was given to setting up exhibits and synopses on some current books by Miss Helen Hempstead of Wayne County, and other incidentals under the direction of Miss DuBord, Home Demonstration agent, as well as a very fine report on current projects from Miss Marie Wolfe, County 4-H Club agent. The 4-H Club of Wayne County have a full and fine program including two or more days in camp for each lad and lass. Luncheon at noon was handled by the ladies of the church. The afternoon program got under way at one o'clock with community singing, welcome by Rev. Nieman, pastor of the church, who was much impressed by the showing of "mending women" and said as much. Miss DuBord's Dress Revue and Austin Grant's talk, "A Penny for your Thoughts" highlighted the afternoon session. A delegate from the county is being chosen to go along with the other State delegates to Europe this summer, and in June the entire executive committee and a representative of the county group will meet in Wayne to plan for the coming year. Miss DuBord hopes to give lectures on preparing food for deep freeze units in each district this season.

Dolores Butler, youngest daughter of the Joseph Butlers of Ronsealer was chosen from among representative group of young ladies of the Archdiocese of Detroit to crown the Blessed Virgin at World Solidarity Day ceremonies, attended by some 20,000 people at the University of Detroit Stadium on Sunday afternoon. A caravan of 40 cars left Our Lady of Sorrows to join the ceremonies, little knowing their choice of Dolores to represent them would be given such honors. Dolores is graduating this June from Mercy High School of Detroit, the second highest in her class.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kulper and family of Gaylord visited with Mrs. Kulper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Whitlock of Purlingbrook, over the week end.

We flashed the old press card again and galed admittance to the Roman Costume Banquet given by Imperium Liguarium (Latin Club), sponsored by Miss Jacob.

The food was prepared by Mrs. McCluskey and her Home Ec girls from among the Freshman Class, who also acted as slaves, as did the Freshman boys, even to the minute detail of "washing the feet". The scene of the Banquet was laid in Heaven where the Old Romans, Caesar (Danny Geyghann), Neptune (Fred Grosse), Cornelia (Lorraine Klansen), Cleopatra (Marguerite Bosquette), Mercury (Richard King) and all the others, parts taken by other students, met to dine and reminisce of their earthly doings, after which they were entertained by dancers in pastel robes.

The Ladies of the Methodist Church sponsored a Mother and Daughter Banquet on Friday evening in the Church Hall, and the Youth Fellowship group gave a musical tea on Sunday in honor of mother, on her day.

Mrs. William Dohany, Mrs. Arthur Peters and Mrs. Lovell Williams entertained in honor of Mrs. Forrest Haft of Byron last Thursday, when a group of neighbors and friends gathered for the occasion.

We are mighty glad to report Mrs. Friebe of St. Francis has returned home from a long stay at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mrs. William Pink, and little daughter, Kathleen, and Miss Ethel Pink spent the week end with Mrs. Pink's folks in Casa City.

The Scouters and parents of CL2 are holding meetings prior to their embarking on their Washington trip.

Mrs. Violet Wells entertained a gathering of friends and neighbors in honor of her daughters, Mrs. Paul Gause (Marie Wells), Mrs. Russell Cowan (Beulah Wells).

The meeting called for the committee on the Memorial Day Parade was well attended and young correspondents were chosen president; Charles Helas, vice president; Mrs. Teaghan, secretary, and George Nacker, treasurer for this year. Axel Rutila will serve as Marshal. A wonderful group volunteered as committeemen, namely Mr. Belser, Mr. Hoppe, Mr. Beech, Mr. Ouellette, Mr. Gagner, Mr. Gus Davis, Mr. Moore, Mr. Schultz, and others. The uniformed band, led by Mr. Mann, will lead the parade.

Our family group went Highland way a week ago Sunday looking for and finding the Edsel Ford Estate that Michigan, has fallen heir to. I repeat, we Michiganders, and we now have it narrowed down to we Oakland County folks, should be mighty thankful for our native grandeur, and treat it kindly. We Scouters harp on that very thing continually.

Mr. and Mrs. Howe of Redford, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Walsh dined at Rotunda Inn last Sunday.

Mrs. C. L. Cook lent her home for the annual meeting of the Edgewood Mothers Club last Wednesday. Mrs. Falkner was chosen president for another year. Mrs. Howe, vice president, Mrs. Leront, treasurer and Mrs. Lawson, secretary. Mrs. Gallagher is chairman of the sick committee. The group is in hopes of completing their recreation project this summer and are taking the matter of scholarships under advisement.

Our Girl Scout Association met on the first Monday of May with Mrs. Rausander. The Day Camp personnel are meeting at Mrs. Earle's home on Wednesday.

Miss Edna Smith of Owosso who spent many years on the teaching staff at Edgewood School was the guest of the M. J. Belsor family last week, renewing old acquaintances in the community.

The Band Boosters Club met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Mann on Tuesday evening.

The Richard Wines of St. Francis entertained Mrs. Wine's parents, and a group of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dwyer of Lansing.

The current family diversion — making sack dresses for the young slim daughter. (Haven't been able to do it in "nothing flat" as the ad reads.
