The Mothers Club thanks all who contributed to their antique show, making it the success it was.

SAFETY PATROL ENTERTAINED AT THEATRE

Last Saturday nearly one hundred local Safety Patrol boys and girls were guests of the Civic Theatre at the annual Patrol and Squad Matinee Theatre Party. This entertainment is given to the Patrol members by the theatre owners in recognition of the work they have done during the past winter in accident prevention.

The Civic Theatre cooperated with other theatres in the Butterfield field. Allied, Cooperative and Independent Theatres of Michigan in entertaining the School Safety Patrol boys and girls prior to the end of the school year. In other theatres throughout the state similar matinees were held last Saturday afternoon, June 7.

WEST POINT PARK
By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM. 1481-M

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Slavin, of Ulenburg, Ohio, are spending a few days with relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Pat Porter, of New London, Ohio, was the Saturday night and Sunday guests of Mrs. Dolores Ault.

Mr. Jack Tallman has been ill. Mrs. Harold McVicar is suffering with a throat infection.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carter, of Hubbard Avenue, Saturday, June 21. Sailor Louis Carter is home on leave until June 18th.

Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Cameron, of Redford, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon, of Breton Road, were calling upon Mrs. J. W. Ault last Tuesday evening.

A few friends got together at the home of Mrs. George Welch, on Mayfield Avenue, Tuesday evening, June 3rd and aided Grandma in celebrating her birthday. A number of pretty gifts and congratulatory cards were on display. Shortcake and cream made pleasing refreshment.

After a few days visit, Mrs. Smith, mother of Mrs. Louis Jennings, Norfolk Avenue, returned to her home near Flat Rock Saturday.

Mrs. Louis Graham and Mrs. Clinton Ault were visiting with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Vett Cooley, in Hazel Park, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Knopf, of Eight Mile Road, entertained in honor of the 3rd birthday of their little daughter Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Porter and daughter, Carol Anne, were weekend guests from New London, O., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault and were in attendance at the Ault-Roberts wedding Saturday.

Relatives from the East are guests of Mrs. Shirley Schilling.

The Stangers entertained relatives from Detroit Sunday.

Mrs. Louis Graham gave a luncheon Thursday with about twenty-five ladies from the Farmington Baptist Church participating. The pleasant affair was held in the recreation room on the Graham property on Mayfield Avenue.

Rev. Gordon Cameron conducted the services for Mrs. Margaret Martin at Heene's Funeral Home Thursday afternoon of last week. A large following made up of friends and relatives from Wayne, Detroit and northern Ohio as well as from our own community was in attendance. Floral tributes were exceptionally lovely.

Burial was at Glen Eden. As the summer days come along neighbors and friends, as well as relatives, will sadly miss the kindly little lady who found so much pleasure in "Just Living".

Stanley Schilling, Pembroke Avenue, died Thursday afternoon at Mt. Carmel Hospital. His health had been poor for several years, but he had only that very day entered the hospital. His wife survives him. He had long been a D.S.R. employee and for several years a respected resident of West Point Park. Funeral services were held from the Hunter Funeral Home in Detroit Monday morning, the 9th. A clergyman of the Lutheran faith officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault and daughter, Lora Anne; also Miss Dolores Ault, were visitors in Monroe Friday evening. The occasion was a rehearsal for the Ault-Roberts wedding.

Sunday afternoon. It is hoped that Miss Ault may return home at the end of this week. Mrs. Nora Cowger, formerly of Seven Mile Road, is a patient in the same room with her.

Nelson Cameron, of Redford, but friend of many West Point Park folks is greatly improved, following his long illness, and is about to open his Bible Shop in Highland Park. For a time it was feared he might be permanently disabled.

Carl Lipke, of Flint, does not rally from his critical illness and has again been moved to a hospital. Mr. Lipke is a brother-in-law of Joseph Sidelinkier and has visited here often. It is not called soon, Mrs. Sidelinkier will join her sister again at the end of this week.

A birthday celebration was in order Wednesday of last week for Beverly Varhol, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol. Beverly was three years old.

Because of the death of Mrs. Margaret Martin, who had been with the Sunshine Sisters since they began work in this community some years back, only a brief Sunshiners meeting was held last week. The Sisters will meet again on Wednesday, June 13th, and it is hoped to have a full attendance at that time. "Gardens" is the topic selected. Cake will be provided by Mrs. Varhol.

Neighborhood Church folks are still looking forward with anticipation to another Sunshiners' service on Thursday evening, June 28th. A gospel team from the Elm Baptist Church will lead the meeting.

Father's Day will shortly be observed in all our churches. A Detroit soloist is scheduled to render several special numbers next Sunday in the Neighborhood Bible School.

"Grandma Martin's" favorite hymns were sung in the Neighborhood Bible School last Sunday, and a sketch of her life given, emphasizing the interest she had always taken in the Bible and Sunday School work. Boys and girls of the community regret the passing of a real friend.

Austin Ault is on the sick list.
