Mrs. Jack Sherman has been visiting her sister in Toledo.
Mrs. Kenneth Owen returned last week from a visit to Traverse City. Her children are now ill with mumps.
Mrs. Alice Sherman, Farmington Road, has gone to northern Michigan for a visit.

The Hoffa, Mayfield Avenue, are leaving for a week's vacation trip. George Middlewood and children are visiting Mrs. Middlewood's parents, in southern Michigan.

Mrs. William Sherman, Mayfield Avenue, has been ill with a severe cold.
The Bradleys, Farmington Road, are planning to move to Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Ward and son, Michael, from Akron, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault.

Mrs. Harold Slevin and her young daughter, from Uniontown, O., were week end guests of relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Beverly Rohlinger has been having a vacation visit with relatives in northern Michigan.

Mrs. Walter Rehahn is much improved, following her recent illness. Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher, who spent most of the winter in Florida, have returned to Michigan for the summer. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Houtz, who have been occupying the Fisher residence on Mayfield Avenue, are enjoying a two weeks' vacation trip.

Bobby McVicar has been having mumps.

Mrs. Ault has returned from a vacation visit with relatives in Indiana.

Mrs. Louis Graham is on vacation three weeks.

Mrs. Edward Kochanek and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, who have been with Mrs. Kochanek's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts for a few weeks, left Saturday for their home in Detroit. Mary Elizabeth is to be christened July 5th.

The Arthur Muirs visited relatives in Detroit Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Mrs. Mary Weigle, from Detroit, called on Mrs. J. W. Ault Thursday evening.

Freda Ault and Miss Marietta Schult were calling on Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Cameron, on Five Points Avenue, in Redford, last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Alice Gordon, from Windsor, was the guest of Mrs. Ralph Voorhes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Willets and daughter, Joanne, are vacationing in northern Michigan.

The Rosses, of Hubbard Avenue, are moving the middle of this week to their new home on the Five Mile Road. The Hubbard Avenue property has been purchased by Forest Ault. Mr. and Mrs. Ault expect to occupy their house within a few weeks.

Mr. Harry Wolfe, Sr., is confined to her home with an attack of arthritis.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis and the Harold McVicar's all enjoyed an outing and picnic together at Marysville Sunday.

The marriage of Marietta Schult, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult, Shadydale Avenue, and Noll Wyman, from near Rochester, is scheduled to take place next Saturday, July 5th at 4 p.m. Rev. Gordon Cameron will officiate and the ceremony is to be performed at the Cameron residence on Five Points Avenue, Redford. Mr.

and Mrs. Harold McVicar will attend the party. Following the wedding, a "Open House Reception" will be held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple expect to reside in a newly-prepared home located between Rochester and Lake Orion.

Dr. Loris Hotchkiss has returned from his vacation.

Marion and Anne Johnson, young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, have each had a slice of chicken-pox.

The Doherty's entertained their son from Detroit a day the first of last week.

Children's Day was observed at the Neighborhood Bible School Sunday morning. A special program was followed out. Next Sunday will be Patriotic Sunday.

The choir of the Community Methodist Church held a get-together and practice period at the home of Austin Ault Wednesday night of last week.

About twenty young folks from the Elm Baptist Church, Detroit, came out to the Neighborhood Church Thursday evening of last week and conducted a much-appreciated Song and Service. The Neighborhood Church is likely to have its doors open most any Thursday evening through the summer and any or all of the neighbors are invited to stop in for hymn-singing and Bible study.

About forty relatives met at the home of Mrs. M. E. Ault Tuesday evening of last week and tendered a Surprise Bridal shower to Margaret Ault, whose marriage to Forrest Ault was an event of Saturday, June 28th. In every way the affair was a complete success.

After regaling her composure, the honored young woman undid and inspected the contents of thirty-seven packages. Gifts were very lovely indeed and the bride-to-be thanked all most graciously. At the end of the evening, Mrs. Austin Ault, acting as hostess, and several assistants, served a delectable lunch.

Mrs. Harold McVicar tendered a miscellaneous bridal shower Wednesday night of last week to Miss Marietta Schult, whose marriage to Noll Wyman is to take place Saturday, July 5th. The affair was held in the pleasant basement recreation room of the Marvin Addis residence, and about a dozen ladies participated. A "Hold the Bitter" came as an opening stunt, provoked much amusement. Afterward, the guest of honor opened and accepted the lovely gifts bestowed upon her.

Mrs. McVicar, assisted by her mother and sister, Mrs. Addis and Mrs. Block, served appropriate refreshments.

The picnic will be held Saturday, July 19, at Cass Benton Park. Present reports would indicate that this will be the largest picnic the Farm Bureau has ever held. The Farm Bureau groups of South Farmington and Walley Lake have been invited to attend.

Those attending will meet at the park between 11:00 a.m. and noon, and pot luck dinner will be served at 1:00 p.m. During the afternoon there will be games for the children, and ball games and entertainment for the adults.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gamache received word Monday evening of the birth of a grandson, weighing 8 pounds, 6 ounces, to Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Ryan (Theresa Gamache), of Washington, D. C.

Final arrangements for the annual picnic of the West Farmington Farm Bureau were made by the committee in charge at a meeting last Thursday evening, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Button.

D. OF I. WOMEN ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

Mrs. Louise Brown, Regent of Our Lady of Sorrows Circle 617, Daughters of Isabella, was the delegate to the 13th Annual State Convention held at the Durant Hotel in Flint. Mater Salvatoris Circle of Flint was hostess circle for the convention.

The convention was opened with a Solemn High Mass for deceased members at St. Matthews Church. Rev. Father Luke M. Powers was the celebrant. Mass was followed by a reception breakfast in St. Matthews Auditorium. At that time the welcoming address was given by the mayor of Flint.

The business session convened immediately following the breakfast, in the ballroom of the Durant Hotel. A delegate luncheon was served at noon. The day's business was followed by initiation ceremonies for sixty candidates of Mater Salvatoris Circle of Flint. A beautiful display of Emblematic drill work was then presented by Fort Huron Circle No. 371, St. Agatha of Marine City; Mater Salvatoris of Flint and Amadeus of Detroit.

A Solemn High Mass was celebrated on Sunday for the living members of the National Circle of Daughters of Isabella, at St. Michael's Church. Rev. Father Diakso was celebrant.

On Sunday, afternoon the entire delegation took a sight seeing trip to Davison, Michigan. A luncheon was served at St. John's School auditorium and Rev. Father Earl V. Sheridan, pastor, delivered an interesting talk on the history and growth of the parish.

The convention closed with a State Banquet in the hotel ballroom. Toastmaster was Rev. Fr. Maurice Oik, pastor of St. Agnes Church, Flint. Guest speakers were Rev. Jerome MacSachin of East Lansing and National Regent Mrs. Carolyn B. Manning, and C. R. Jordan, State Deputy of the Knights of Columbus. Soloists for the evening were Miss Ellen Dolahan and James Beaudoin, accompanied by Mrs. Grace Flynn.

Other members of Our Lady of Sorrows Circle attending the convention were Mrs. Helen Martin, Mrs. Mildred Davis, Mrs. Theresa Guerin and Mrs. Stella Stryz.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Camp Prisk and other members of the Clarence Billing family entertained with a picnic supper on Friday in honor of their mother's birthday anniversary, which was a complete surprise to the honored guest.
