LATEST WORD IN JACKET BLURB

The three books described in this column are recommended for your reading pleasure by your local librarian.

"Driftwood Valley" is written by Mrs. Stanwell-Fletcher, a trained naturalist and a native of Pennsylvania. She is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke and has a doctor's degree from Cornell. She brings to her nature-writing a human understanding and sympathy which are evident in "Driftwood Valley" not only when she writes about dogs and horses but when she tells of the strange ways of the marionette or the timber wolf.

Driftwood Valley is two hundred miles from the nearest road in British Columbia. Here the author and her husband built a cabin. The solitude appealed to them and they loved the adventure, but the great purpose was for scientific study. They collected specimens of wildlife for a Canadian museum. Animals, birds, fish, flowers, trees, and plants were the background for days filled with strenuous work.

All of their story is in this book. "Firelake Book of Short Stories" by Dr. Edward Wagenknecht is a collection of a group of ghost stories that are really short stories. Some of them are ancient ones going back to the Biblical times and to the time of Pliny and Chaucer. Some are modern as "The Room in the Tower" and "Number 12".

They are divided into groups, a few examples of which are: "From Out of the Past", "Haunted Rooms and Homes", "Killers", "Ghosts of the Living", "These Psychic Gists", "What Was It?", "Assorted Sprites" and "Variations". Some of the authors are: Du Maurier, James, Burroughs, Twain, Strong, etc.

"East River" by Aesch is a story of New York City. A single street, in the City, Forty-eighth Street, from First Avenue to East River, was in those days a collection of old homes and tenements, occupied by a polychrome collection of nationalities and religions such as to one neighborhood in any other city had never gathered together. Polish, Russian Jew, German Jew, Irish, Italian, German, Catholic, and Lutheran. These people were separated by prejudice yet united by common interests.

Moshe Wolf was a devout Jew, steeped in the teachings of his race but he is the one who reaches above narrow prejudice. It is a story of him and his family.

NOVI NEWS

By MRS. GEORGE WAITE
TELEPHONE NORTHVILLE 950-33

The R. E. Wards entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. Macintosh of Boston, Jim Macintosh of Garden City and other guests from Detroit the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Salow and Mr. and Mrs. George Atkinson have returned from a trip to the Smoky Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Archambeau entertained his brother who is in the Navy for a few days the past week.

Guests at the Waite home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Farmer and Miss Edith Jackson of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holmes and little son of Detroit. Miss Mary Jane Burgess had a couple of days off duty at Mr. C. C. Farmer's home where she is in training, and spent them at her home on Beck Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Power of Denver, Colorado, arrived in Novi on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cummings of Bedford were Thursday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. George Waite.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Henning accompanied with guests, left for a two weeks vacation to be spent in the northern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark left on Friday to spend a few days in the northern part of the state, and to do some fishing.

The Gus Zessons entertained the Eamon Rutledge of Franklin, Hills, Mrs. Marie Christensen of Detroit and Miss Marian Power of Northville on Sunday.

Mrs. Doris Darling and two children accompanied Mrs. William Hamor Sr. and daughter to the Jay Leavenworth cottage near Brighton on fishing on Tuesday, and according to reports they really got them.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Northville were Friday evening visitors at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Clara Clark.

The Rebekah Club will be entertained at the home of the Carlsons near Leon Lake on Wednesday, August 7. This will be a pot luck picnic dinner on the lawn. Everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Zesson were Friday evening dinner guests at the Howard Thayers in Farmington where a family get together was held honoring the Arthur Powers, who left on Saturday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Hester Gow of Northville and Mrs. Harriet Klammer of Ypsilanti, who will be the Powers' guests at their home in Denver for a week.

Mr. M. O. Lackey of Arkansas is making an indefinite stay with relatives here.

The Blue Star Mothers held a bake sale at R. E. Wards on Saturday.

The Drill Team of Novi Rebekah Lodge will hold their annual party at the home of Mrs. Helen Biers of Wisconsin on Thursday, August 8. Get out, girls, and be in all the planning that is to be done.

The Charles Triceys Sr. entertained guests the past week. The young daughter of the Edward Triceys, who was very badly injured when knocked down by an automobile four weeks ago is getting along nicely now.

If you happen to meet Mr. William Flynn and wonder why the broad smile, it can be explained by the arrival of a new grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elschel last Thursday at Pontiac General Hospital. Mother and baby are doing fine.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Herman Schroeder, who passed away July 31, 1946.

Two loving hands are resting, the voice we loved is still. He is waiting on God's beautiful hill. God gave us strength to face it, courage to bear the blow, What is meant to love him, no one will ever know.

His loving wife, Mary, and children, 42-1p
