SISTERS MARRIED AT PRETTY DOUBLE WEDDING

The Calvary Methodist Church in Detroit was the scene of a pretty double wedding for two sisters on Saturday, June 27, at one o'clock, when Ruth and Helen Brover, daughters of Mrs. Verna Stelman of Farmington, became the brides of Albert Fahren, formerly of Pinobog, and Donald Kosa, Washington, D.C.
Rev. John Greenwood officiated before an altar decorated with pink peonies and white gladioli. Herbert Tucker of Detroit sang "Benedictus" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by the organist who also played the wedding march.
The brides, given in marriage by their grandfathers, Leon Chipman, of St. Louis, Michigan, were white slipper satin gowns which were all identical. They were styled with sweetheart necklines decorated with seed pearls. The bodices of the dresses were decorated with very full skirts edged in long trains. The sleeves were trimmed with satin lace and were held in place by white satin heart-shaped flaps, decorated with seed pearls. The brides carried bouquets of white rhubarb lilies.
Anabelle Chesney, sister of Albert, was Ruth's maid of honor. She wore a blue marquisette gown and carried a bouquet of white and blue net crown. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and blue delphiniums.
Betty Stelman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a white marquisette gown and carried a bouquet of white and blue net crown. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and blue delphiniums.
Beverly Alberts Becker was flower girl for both brides, her cousins. She wore a white marquisette gown fashioned with a ruffled skirt. Her veiled crown was of white net and carried a bouquet of white and blue net crown. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and blue delphiniums.
Robert Brover, brother of the brides, was best man for Albert, and Donald Stelman, brother-in-law of the brides, was best man for Donald.
