(American - style) methods of thought or action.

And yet — and here is the thing that baffled most of us — he was well-liked, he was good company, and if we could have found the tiniest peg on which to hang an idea, he would have inspired us to write about Russia. "With a heart," as a Russian woman interpreter is reported to have begged of Sam Welles, Time's correspondent in Moscow.

We wonder about Boris. We would have liked so much to sit down and talk frankly and freely with him about the common problems and the still more common misunderstandings between our countries. Was he able to appear so genial and friendly and charming because he held such high rank at home that he wasn't afraid to lack, as far as personal matters went, as a trusting friend?

Was he so deeply indoctrinated in the ideology of Marxism-Leninism-Stalinism that he was filled with pity rather than the typical suspicion which seems to permeate most Russian-American relations? One slight clue we have, though it may be a false one. Once, at a rather intimate gathering, Krelow's hostess finally grew a little impatient and said something like this: "Listen here, Boris, we're friends. Surely you can be frank with us made cake, provided by Miss Francis Kauranen, was served, accompanied by an iced drink, during the social hour. The next Sunshine meeting will be held Wednesday, August 27th, at 2 p.m. in the Neighborhood Church.

The Vacation Bible School, sponsored by the Community Methodist Church, closed Friday, after ten days of work. Many of the classes had been held out of doors. Attendance was encouraging.

Temperance Day was observed in the Neighborhood Bible School Sunday morning. A feature of the program was the story of "The Drunk on Pigs," greatly enjoyed by all the youngsters.

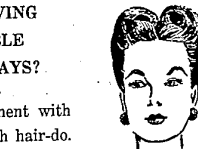

A study of "The Twenty-Third Psalm" was a cool, refreshing topic at the evening service in the Neighborhood Church Sunday.

and explain why your government?" Before she could finish (he guessed what was coming) he held up his hand.

"Please," he said with a disarming smile that took the sting out of his words. "We are having such a pleasant time, but you force me to say this: I cannot explain what you wish because you people are just too stupid to understand Communism."

If that sentiment is a sincere and typical expression of how the men who run Russia feel, the road ahead is a rocky one. Kipling once put into verse the problem he felt the foreigner faced in trying to understand the American. What he said might be applied to Russia:

"Inopportune, shrill accented, the acid Asiatic mirth that leaves him, careless 'mid his dead, the scandal of the elder earth. How shall he clear himself, how teach you har or weighed defense prefer—a brother or hedged with alien speech and lacking all interpreter."

OAKLAND COUNTY RED CROSS NOTES

Total attendance at the summer water safety program of the Oakland County Chapter American Red Cross, which ended last week, was 5,654, according to Mark Smith, chairman of water safety. Instruction was given at 19 beaches and pools of the county once a week for eight weeks. Beginner, Intermediate, swimmer and advanced swimmer certificates were awarded to those who completed the various tests and Junior life saving certificates were also awarded.

In addition to this program, three volunteers have directed classes at Twin Beach, Bradford, Kempton, Bill Jackson and Neil Wasserberg have been responsible for these classes. Many Oakland County camps have placed Red Cross instructors in charge of swimming during the camp period.

Mr. Smith states that frequent drownings during the summer months show the lack of knowledge on the part of many individuals of the hazards involved in any aquatic activity. The chapter for this reason offers each summer the opportunity for training in swimming and water safety.
