THESE LAST FEW DAYS... before the start of school for the fall term are crammed with last minute pichics and visits, and all kinds of good times. Beginning near the school bus will be seen making it's familiar round, and one gain the whole family will be up bright and early and the school of it's members off for their day at school or at work. No more wonderfal hours to lay out in the sun, or to enjoy at the lake.
The respits from music lessons is over, too. A whole new year is opening before us — full of experiences and pleasant associations.
It's always exciting to get back to school and see all the classmates whom we haven't seen since school was out last June. And, of course, it's good to see our teachers again, too — even though they may not have made us completely happy at times, we usually discover we as good to see our teachers again, too — even though they may not have made us completely happy at times, we usually discover we were not faultless, and after all they number among the very best friends that we have. The more we think about it, the more we wish we might be going back to school, too!

seemed to be enjoying themselves immensely at the Jaycee Fun Bowl down at Farnington Recreation last Friday evening. Whether they actually did bowling or not was beside the point — they had a wonderful time anyway. It was quite something to see some of our most enthusiastic bowlers step up to the alley, "assume position" — and what a position! — and down the alley would go the bail — or maybe down the gutter, as they bowled with both hands. To be sure, Farnington Recreation has never seen the likes of bowling like that before, but they will see it again if the public has it's way for everyone is looking forward to a bigger Fun Bowl next year. Here was entertainment that was something different — and a downright good time for everybody.

THE SECRET.

Was out last week with the posting of a notice that "Sandra's Sandwich Shop" will soon be opening in the new building on Grand River, but west of the Civic Theatre building. It shouldn't be long before it is all ready for occupancy and we will welcome another new business on Farmington's main street.

MORE NEW SIGNS.

put in their appearance about our city on Wednesday of this week as the "Bus Stop" signs went up. Along with the new parking signs that have recently been erected, the city is now well posted, and there isn't much excuse for violators, if they choose to look about them.

THE NEXT TWO WEEKS.

THE NEXT TWO WEEKS.

The specific promise to be very busy ones indeed for all of us. The Gala Days provide a spot of excitement through Monday of next week, and before that is forgotten, along comes the Horse show, sponsored by the Verans of Foreign Wars, and the Farmington Valley Saddle Club, next Saturday and Sunday. This event is becoming one of the highlights of the year. Then there is the Flower Show the following Saturday, also an important event each year. Not overhooking the opening of our echools and the accompanying activities — and the resumption of regular meetings of all our various clubs and organizations after the summer recess. Bet there won't be a single, solitary soul that will complain of inactivity in the weeks ahead. A few people are still away on executions, but even that is practically behind us now, and whether we feel it or not, we ought to all be ready to plunge into a round of busy, happy days with renewed viger and enthusiasm.

Labor Day — a pause when we can look at ourselves as no other nation on earth can look and see constructive progress.

On this Labor Day, 1947, we hold in our hands a challenge . . a challenge of responsibility that may well affect the balance of the world. American labor has a vital part in that chalenge as does every American. It is simply to reaffirm before all mankind that we can work together ... produce together ... live together with respect, recognizing that the high standards of living we now enjoy were built on this democratic ideal.
