At a double ring ceremony, the young couple exchanged their vows before an altar decorated with palms, white candles in candleabra, and baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Rev. Her fingertip illustration veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls and bugle beads. Barbara carried a spray bouquet of white roses. Mrs. Francis Brunette of Detroit was matron of honor. She wore an aqua gown and carried a spray of pink roses. The bridesmaids, Marilyn Eichler and Dorothy Gustafson, both of Farmington, wore gowns of blue and peach and carried bouquets of Johanna Hill roses. All three attendants wore tiaras of roses. Francis Brunette was best man. Edward Harper of Detroit and Burke Martin of Farmington seated the guests.

Solos were sung by Mrs. Ray Eichler of Farmington. Following the wedding a reception was held in the social hall of the church. The young couple left for a wedding trip to Northern Michigan.
