PUBLIC INVITED TO ATTEND SACRED CONCERT

A unique sacred concert, featuring the renowned chorale harpist, Mr. Otto Baganz, and the Baganz Trio, will be presented at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Middlebelt at Eight Mile Road, on Tuesday, September 16, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Baganz is widely acclaimed as a very talented and skilled musician. Through many years of faithful application he has acquired a marvellously brilliant technique on an instrument which is one of the most difficult to master. He is a pupil of the world's greatest living harpists.

Assisting Mr. Baganz are his son, Reuben, and Rhonda Baganz. These young artists, featuring the marimba, vibraphone and chimes, combine with their father to produce a type of music that has been largely pronounced most excellent and unforgettably unique.

The program consists principally of chorales and hymns, such as "A Mighty Fortress is our God" and "Abide with Me," interspersed with such symphonic numbers as Beethoven's "Vesper Bell" and Schubert's "Finlandia."

The harp played by Mr. Baganz has been acclaimed "the last word in the harp makers' art." The gold-on instrument required two years for completion and is noted for a tone superb in quality and volume. It has been termed "The Stradivarius of Harps." The marimba, vibraphone and chimes are also the best in concert models.

Most unique of all is Mr. Baganz' passion to bring the heavenly music to all who wish to hear it. For this reason it has been a principle with him not to accept an admission price. All are invited and a free will offering is received. We hope that many in our community will accept the invitation. No lover of good music will be disappointed.

Watch this column for the League standing each week.

Following a nice lunch Wednesday noon, the Farmington Exchange Club met the meeting to order. After business was taken care of and guests were introduced, President Maurice Brown turned the meeting over to Charles Stuart, chairman. Mr. Stuart introduced the guest speaker, Paul V. Gaskins, representative of the Detroit District Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

Mr. Gaskins, whose home is in the Farmington area, gave a very interesting talk. For five years he had a radio program in Columbus, and was a fraternity brother of Ernie Pyle. After many humorous and significant stories, he recited some of the poems of thought he had used on his radio program, including the following:

"A smile is the light in a window of the face, that signifies the heart is at home and ready to entertain friends."

"I like a face to be good and long, Because it brings me cheer, But I do not mean long up and down, I mean from ear to ear."

"The proper mental attitude is to look at the flowers, not the thorns of the rose."

"Service to our fellow man is the greatest thing in life."

Mr. Gaskins then told of his association with Ernie Pyle, and gave a word picture of the life of this great man. Ernie Pyle had the common touch, as much a part of America as Mark Twain or the country drug store. He was loved by all, and some day will go down in history as one of America's great men.

Next week's program will be in charge of Exchange Max Hultett.

City Commission

agreement to be signed, whereby emergency fire equipment could be obtained at the rate of $100.00 per hour for a truck for the first hour, and $75.00 per hour for each succeeding hour or fraction thereof. Without such an agreement the rate is doubled. Johnson moved that the agreement be signed and the township be paid for the work, and this portion of the work, and the township will grant an increase in salary to Mr. Lamb.

Johnson moved to give the fire commissioner authority to install adequate telephone service at the fire hall, since the present arrangement of having an extension of the city hall telephone at the fire hall is not satisfactory.

Some discussion was held relative to street repair work, and street commissioner Hutton was asked to have city employees do some filling and repair work at spots that are particularly bad.
