BROWN - SODT
NUPTIALS HELD
SEPTEMBER 20

Elizabeth Jean Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of Shiassee Road, and L. Dean Sodont, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Sodont of Chelsea, Michigan, were married at a nuptial mass at ten o'clock Saturday morning, September 20, in Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Farmington. Rev. Father Thomas Ben Hun officiated, assisted by Father Hennes of Manchester, Michigan.

The bride's gown was of white slipper satin with a yoke of illusion trimmed with Venetian lace which matched the tulle she wore with her finger-tip veil. Her bouquet was of white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

The bride's only attendant, Jean Fisher, of Port Huron, wore a pink gown with pink gladioli and chrysanthemums in her hair, and she carried a matching bouquet.

Marilyn Schaller of Ann Arbor, a cousin of the groom, was the soloist. For the occasion she wore a yellow gown with yellow flowers in her hair.

Serving as best man was Douglas Kennedy of Manchester, and the ushers were the groom's brother, Howard Sodont, and the bride's twin brother, William Brown, of Detroit.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Botsford Inn for members of the bridal party, and at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple left late in the afternoon for a trip to New Jersey and other points in the East. Upon their return they will make their home on the Chelsea-Manchester Road. For going away the bride wore a burgundy wine dressmaker suit of crepe, with brown accessories.

Among the pre-nuptial affairs given for the new Mrs. Sodont was shower, by a group of nurses at Mercy Hospital, Jackson, where she has been employed for the past two years. She is a graduate of Mt. Carmel College of Nursing in Detroit.

LOCAL PEOPLE
ATTEND "KICK-OFF" AT MEADOWBROOK

Football talk pervaded Meadowbrook Country Club on Saturday evening when members and guests joined for the club's "kick-off" dinner dance following the Michigan Michigan State game. The festivity's other purpose was to welcome the club's new members of 1947.

Yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves decorated the lounge and dining room, and the football theme was carried out in the centerpiece of the hors d'oeuvres table arranged in the lounge where cocktails were served, the center decoration being a miniature football field with players in formation. The figures, actually lobsters with sweaters and helmets, furnished an amusing note.

Con L. Metz, entertainment chairman, and Mrs. Metz of Farmington arrived early, and President Hugh Rader and Mrs. Rader brought a group including the William F. Newberry, the Robert Millwards, the Clarence Andries, the P. D. Bell, Mrs. Ann Liller, Joseph Nason, the Hal Hortons, the James Fletchers and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rader, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Leo V. Bogg and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Naber were together, and with the Richard W. Ruens were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Colombo, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cronin and the Walter B. Connollys.
