MRS. ARTHUR HARRISON

A pretty candielight wedding took place at Farmington's First Methodist Church on Saturday evening, October 11, when Lois Sylvia Netson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Nelson, 28930 List Street, became the bride of Arthur Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison, 18371 Pershing, Detroit, Rev. A. Stanley Stone officiated. Given away by her father, the bride was heautful in a hoop-skirt composed to heavy white satin. Tho low illusion yoke was edged with a wide lace ruffe. Her quaint hoop skirt was caught up in scallops, with this ygrays of illies of the valley and satin rosettes to show the underskirt of white lace floome, es. The long train was trimmed with laces.

The bride's fingertlp vell was a how-in-the-back wreath of petals, each one centered with an orange blossom. The cascading vell was of gossamer sheer tulle. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and white laby chrysanthemunas, with a removable corsage of white roses. The maid of hoor, lifelen Harrison, sister of the ground. Verried yellow roses and batly chrysanthemums.

The two bridesmaids were Mrs.
