FOREST FIRE RAGES IN MAINE

WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-M

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ault were dinner guests Sunday of their son-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts, in Monroe.

Bruce Dolyard, Hubbard Avenue, handicapped with a painfully injured hand, sustained when struck by a car while riding on his bike the middle of last week.

A celebration honoring the 2nd birthday of Miss Mae Tallman, 11½ the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dall Tallman, was held at the home of the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tallman, Saturday afternoon. Young friends of the neighborhood participated. A number of pretty gifts were bestowed upon the young lady. Dainty refreshments pleased all.

Local Girl Scouts, under the leadership of Mrs. Hower Coolman, attended the Methodist Church in Farmington Sunday, since it was National Girl Scout Day.

Owners of "The Little Pink Church" or what was formerly the West Point Park Bible Church, on Seven Mile Road, are planning to have it open for Halloween festivities Friday night. Young people of the community are looking forward with anticipation.

Announcement has been made that Dr. Loris M. Hotchkiss, who recently underwent a critical operation at Mt. Carmel Hospital, will be resting for the next six months, and, therefore not following his profession during that time.

The chief conducting the pleasant little restaurant at Westmore and Seven Mile was under the employ of Henry Ford in Greenfield Village for several years and thus the food served is of the truly American sort that inspires goodwill and friendliness among businessmen and women who are just now finding the place a real haven at meal-time.

An interesting coincidence, Grandma Ault, who died October 12, was laid to rest quite near her old friend of the same age, Grandma Martin, who died last June. Grandma Ault was the mother of Emerson Ault and Grandma Martin was Mrs. Emerson Ault's mother.

Because of conflicting circumstances which interfered with arrangements, Rally Day, usually observed the last Sunday in October by the Neighborhood Bible School, will be held next Sunday instead. Parents and visitors will be welcomed.

The regular meeting of the Sunshine Sisters, which would have been held Wednesday, October 22, was cancelled because of Mrs. J.

WEST FARMINGTON By MRS. IRVIN KNAPP

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Green entertained at their home Saturday evening, the Good Cheer Class of the Walled Lake Baptist Church, at a party. Home made pumpkin pie, fried cakes and coffee were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Graham are enjoying a telephone, which was installed in their home this week. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson on Drake Rd. have also had telephone service installed recently.

Wednesday, November 12, is the first lesson in the new extension work program for the West Farmington Group. Each member is to bring Christmas suggestions, besides the regular lesson. The time is 10:00 a.m. at West Bloomfield Town Hall. Please bring your own lunch. The closing time will be at 3:30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Giegler and daughters, Joyce and Jean and baby of Hartland, called on Mrs. Charles Heliker and their mother, Mrs. Lawrence Giegler, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Green, Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp and Mrs. Irvin Knapp attended the Pre-Convention Meeting of the membership of the Oakland County Farm Bureau on Monday, October 27, at the Drayton Plains Church.

NOBLE P.T.A. TO HOLD BAZAAR ON NOVEMBER 8

An opportunity to get your Christmas shopping done early will be afforded local people on Saturday, November 8, when the Noble School Parent Teachers Association will present its annual bazaar, at the school. There will be many lovely articles offered for sale at the various booths that are planned, and there will be delicious refreshments. Plan to visit the bazaar — and tell your friends about it.

A regular meeting of the Noble P.T.A. will be held Monday evening of this week, November 3, at the school, at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. Sage is in charge of the program. All parents and those interested in the school are urged to attend.

Former Resident Here On Short Business Trip

Mr. Otis Coleman, formerly of Farmington, has been in Detroit this week on a business trip from Los Angeles where he is parts manager of the Ford Tractor-Equipment Distributors for thirty counties in Southern California and Arizona. In addition to his business activities in Detroit, Mr. Coleman is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Coleman of 22331 Cass Street and with his friends in Farmington where he resided for many years.

Elvyn Knapp, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp, spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Tol and Green.
