Dinners To Fund Rebuilding

A series of Friday evening dinners will begin April 21 to raise funds for rebuilding the First Congregational Church of Wayne.

The 122 - year - old church located at the corner of Main Street and Wayne Road was destroyed by fire in 1970, and the congregation plans to replace it with a new sanctuary and office complex.

Located in the center of the Wayne urban renewal site, the church is an integral part of the city's urban renewal plans.

The dinners will be served from $10.7 p.m. in the church's plans to raise funds later with Pellowship Hall. The cost is a car wash, flower bulb sales, $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children.
